

U.S. TO SEND GREAT BRITAIN VIGOROUS NOTE OF PROTEST

CASEMENT'S PLOT AGAINST ENGLAND IS REVEALED IN COURT

MUST STOP SEIZURE OF THE MAILS

Washington, May 15.—The American government is preparing a protest characterized by officials as "very vigorous" against the interference with mails to and from the United States by Great Britain. A note to be sent forward in the near future, will take the position that the United States can no longer countenance seizure and detention of mails to and from the United States, particularly neutrals.

The reply recently received from Great Britain to the last American note, protesting against interference with American mails is considered unsatisfactory.

Protests have been made to the government by many individuals and firms have been injured by the frequent delays to which mails have been subjected.

The subject is under detailed study at the state department and President Wilson had decided to make representations to Great Britain as quickly as a note can be completed. The British government will be informed that the United States considers it imperative that her present policy be modified.

Paris, May 15.—The bombardment in the region of the Avoncourt road and Hill 304, north-west of the fortress, still continues, according to an official statement today by the French war office. ### BURNED TO DEATH IN PUBLIC SQUARE

Waco, Texas, May 15.—With fifteen thousand persons as witnesses, including women and children, Jesse Washington, negro boy who confessed to the criminal assault and murder of Mrs. Lucy Fryar, seven miles south of here last Monday afternoon, was taken from the Fifth district court room shortly before noon today and burned to death on the public square.

The burning came immediately after the negro's trial had ended. The jury had returned a verdict of guilty, giving him the death penalty. Then some one started the cry of "Get the negro!" It was taken up by all of those from that part of the county where Mrs. Fryar was killed, and Washington was then seized. The mob at first seemed willing to hang the negro from the suspension bridge, but a suggestion that he be turned on the plaza met with response. He was dragged to the city hall yard, where the chain already around his neck, was thrown over the limb of a tree, wood piled around him and the fire started.

PLANS LAID IN GERMANY BARED

London, May 15.—Sir Roger Casement, who only a few years ago achieved international fame for the services he rendered his government in the exposure of the Putumayo rubber atrocities, today faced the bar in an ordinary police court for a preliminary examination to determine whether he should be held for trial on the charge of high treason against the same government in connection with the rebellion in Ireland. Beside Casement stood Daniel Julian Bailey, who faced a similar charge.

Not in many years has so much popular interest been manifested in a case before the courts. This is due not only to the prominence of Casement, but also because it had expected evidence would be produced which would lay bare a widespread plot resulting in the revolt.

There was an unexpected number of applications for seats in the little court room, but admission was restricted to about 100 persons, including press representatives.

Among the earliest arrivals in the court was Sir Horace Pankett, of the department of agriculture in Ireland.

It was understood he would take no part in the day's proceedings.

The stage was all set when the principal was led into the court, Sir John Dickinson, who presided, the lawyers and witnesses all having taken their places before Casement arrived at 10:40 o'clock and entered the dock.

Far from appearing deeply disturbed at his position, Sir Roger maintained much of his characteristic complaisance.

He smiled and nodded as he saw friends in the court room. With Sir Roger was Daniel Bailey, an Irish soldier, captured by the Germans early in the war. He went from Germany to Ireland in the submarine with Sir Roger, and was taken prisoner at Tralee. Sir Roger showed in his movements some slight indications of the nervous strain under which he was laboring.

The attorney general said Casement described himself as the organizer of Irish Volunteers and impressed upon the Irish prisoners in Germany that everything was to be gained for Ireland by Germany's winning the war. Those prisoners who joined a brigade, he was attempting to

COUNTY NEWS

The Tri-Township Sunday school convention held Sunday at the Harrisonville M. E. church proved a great success, splendid interest being manifested in the different sessions. Rain kept down the attendance of the afternoon session.

The choir of the church furnished the music at the morning, afternoon and evening services. The afternoon session opened with music by the choir followed by a splendid Sunday school talk by J. H. Finney of Portsmouth who is greatly interested in bible school work. Mr. Finney gave a very interesting and helpful talk on "The Conception of God." Officers were elected at the close of the afternoon meeting. The congregation voted for G. W. White, president and T. F. Kent, secretary and treasurer for re-election but the men refused the offices.

The election held resulted as follows: President, John Dodge; vice president, Clarence Bennett; secretary and treasurer, S. E. Samson. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the "new" church two miles east of Harrisonville. The "new" church is a Free Will Baptist and United Brethren church. It was also decided to hold the meetings every four or six weeks, and at the places where the congregation desires or asks to have the meetings held.

The evening session opened at 7:30 o'clock. The feature of the evening was a talk on "Mother" by Prof. Paul E. Cromer district school superintendent.

Frank Swearingin is reported quite ill at his home in Friendship.

Another bad fire at Harrisonville was averted Sunday morning when Walter Stockham of the grocery firm of Stockham and Payne entered his store and found the floor on fire. A cuspidor made of a tobacco box and sawdust was completely destroyed and a small hole had been burned in the floor. A bucket of water dashed on the flames extinguished them.

As a matter of news we frequently see where mention is made of some person who has committed a crime or gone wrong in some way and giving their home address as Lucasville.

In order that the public may not be misled as to Lucasville harboring undesirable people, we wish to state that we have four R. F. D. routes out of Lucasville, one extending west some 8 to 10 miles into Morgan and Rush township, north into Pike county, east 8 to 10 miles into Jefferson, Harrison and Madison, south into Clay, Jefferson and Harrison and all this community give their address as Lucasville.

HAVE PURE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

Your heart works night and day without a pause. It is the principal organ of the circulation of your blood. It is of the utmost importance that it should do its work well. The quality and quantity of your blood have much to do with its action. If this fluid is pure and abundant, your heart and other vital organs act with more energy than when it is defective in quality or deficient in quantity.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure and abundant. It is the one old reliable medicine that has been sold for forty years, for purifying the blood. There is no better blood remedy, appetizer, stomach tonic. It embodies the careful training, experience, and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

peaceful and tranquil as the average country village, and when you crowd the misdeeds of 15 to 20 miles square into as small a space as the village of Lucasville occupies it looks bad in print.

Mother's Day program at Lucasville was quite a success. The church was beautifully decorated with white and green flowers. Reserved seats for the mothers and also a large red carnation, a short program rendered by the children and a splendid talk to mothers by Rev. Pietsmeyer. Special music by the choir.

The Baccalaureate address was given by Judge T. C. Beatty in the graduating class, which was well delivered and appreciated by the audience. The special music by the choir was well rendered and much credit is due the leader, Mrs. J. H. Appel.

Are Pleased With Report Auditor Zucker Has Made

City Auditor L. A. Zucker is pleased to have received prompt acknowledgment from state officials whom he favored with copies of the 1915 annual fiscal report of the city of Portsmouth.

Jos. T. Tracy, of the bureau of inspection and supervision of public officers, says of the report that it is well classified, contains the necessary detail and is also comprehensive of all municipal activities.

State Auditor A. V. Donahy writes that it is a complete detailed report and ought to show to citizens of Portsmouth the exact condition of their finances for a given period. "It shows," continues he, "the salaries and maintenance of each function of government and is full of interesting detail. The real pity of the whole matter is that the citizens generally do not take more interest in the reports of their public officials and better inform themselves as to fiscal matters. This report meets with my approval."

The trouble started on Norfolk avenue, near Walnut, and the two fought until they reached Gallia and Plum streets. One of the girls hurled a rock at her opponent, but the rock missed its intended target and just missed breaking a window at the Harry Wagner home on Gallia street.

SCOTT IS TO CONFER WITH THE PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., May 15.—On his return from El Paso, Major General Scott, chief of staff, had a detailed report of his projected conferences with General Obregon, General Carranza's war minister, to present to President Wilson Secretary Baker and Secretary Lansing. Officials were anxious to learn precisely why the Mexican general declined to sign an agreement covering operation of American troops in Mexico particularly in view of official notification that General Carranza had approved the original draft of the protocol.

The new concentration of troops ordered by General Funston after the El Paso conference was being conducted satisfactorily. This was interpreted as meaning the supply lines were being shortened. There were no indications today that national guards of any other states would be called to strengthen the border.

Mr. Bannon In Waverly

Attorney Arthur H. Bannon was called to Waverly Monday on important legal business.

Very Brief.
A record of brevity in a holiday correspondence was established by a Frenchman in the eighteenth century. Voltaire and Piron, the epigrammatist, exchanged challenges to write the shortest possible letter. So when Voltaire was starting on a journey he wrote to Piron, "Eo ras," which is the complete Latin for "I am going to the country." Piron's answer was just "I"—complete Latin for "go."

In business correspondence the record is divided between Victor Hugo, who, anxious to know how his "Les Miserables" was going, wrote to the publisher, "I," and the publisher, who triumphantly replied "I."

A Child's Prayers.
If the mother would teach her child to pray she must first know how to pray herself. Then if she kneels by her child's bed and in simple words commits her household to the keeping of him who slumbers not nor sleeps her child will catch something of his mother's spirit and trustfulness and in time, learning to join with the mother in the words as he has already joined with her in the spirit of reverence and repose, will learn to pray. The mother who has no such experience cannot inspire it in her child, but must leave it to be given by some one better equipped than herself.—Lewen Abbott in Outlook.

BEGIN SURVEY ON NEW N. & W. DEPOT SITE

New Structure Will Be Handsome Affair

Announcement of the N. & W. plans to build a passenger station on Chillicothe street, south of the north bound tracks at the foot of Houston hill in the North End and west of Chillicothe street and a sub-station east of the Gallia street crossing south of Gallia street and west of Broadway was received with much joy by the public.

That the N. & W. means business was evidenced Monday when a force of surveyors put in the day surveying the North End site of the proposed new N. & W. Lines were run on the lot and much of the preliminary work has already been started. The depot is to be a modern structure of the kind and is to be built in the vicinity of the plant of the Portsmouth Paving Brick Company. The site will be of sufficient length and width to provide for adequate trackage, switching facilities, and to erect a railway terminal that will be one of the finest along the entire N. & W. system.

After weighing carefully every feature of all other sites considered, high officials of the road deemed it best to build the main passenger station in the North End and a sub-station in the East End, a plan of this character they are believing will work out handsomely.

"In this matter traffic from all parts of the city can be handled quickly and systematically," a prominent N. & W. official stated Monday.

It was generally believed that the N. & W. depot would be located in close near the present one.

An N. & W. official stated Monday that President L. E. Johnson was enthusiastic about the two sites and before leaving the city he expressed the desire to have work started immediately on the main passenger depot, which will represent a great outlay of money and will give the city what it has long anticipated, a modern and up-to-date passenger station.

No Appetite--Little Sleep

Symptoms of a Run-Down Condition, We have a Remedy

We ask every weak, run-down person in Portsmouth to try our Vinol, with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not re-establish their health. Letters like the following give us confidence:

"I am in the millinery business and on my feet most of the time. I got so weak and run-down that I lost my appetite and was unable to sleep, had a severe chronic cold and lost my color. I learned about Vinol through a friend, and within three weeks after taking it I noticed an improvement, and soon gained in weight, health and strength. I am recommending Vinol to my friends and they also speak highly of it." Catherine Hoar, West Chester, N. Y.

In hundreds of cases where old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions have failed to restore strength and health, Vinol has succeeded, because while it contains all the curatives they do, its good work is not retarded by useless grease and oil.

GIRL GOES IN TRANCE AT REVIVAL MEETING

Complaints regarding the din which is said to attend the services of the Pentecostal church at its temporary quarters in the J. R. Harrison building at No. 545 Front street, were renewed with increased vigor on Monday, because of an all-night's trance of a 12-year-old Stewartville orphan girl named Bailey.

Persons living in the vicinity made complaint that the noises disturbed their peaceful slumbers. The Bailey girl dropped off into the so-called "spell" after having first developed the unknown tongue speaking stage. Her foster parents remained with her throughout the night.

Other members sat up with the girl until the wee small hours of the morning. She came out of the trance close to the noon hour Monday.

Chief Clark and Sergeant Smith called on Mrs. Harrison, lessee of the building, and advised her of the complaints. She denied that the noises came from within and said drunken men in a habit of loitering about the food wall, were responsible for the disorders complained of.

Asked what it is that prompts the Pentecostal church attendants to perform as they do when inspired, she laughingly advised the inquirer to read the Bible, then after declaring she did not wish to injure any one's feelings, quoted a passage thusly: "Oh, ye stiff necked, uncircumcised in heart."

Chief Clark expects to detail an officer to give closer attention to the disturbances said to be existing there.

EARL SMITH INJURED

Sheriff E. W. Smith received a letter from his son, Earl Smith, who is one of the star outfielders for the Omaha, Neb., baseball team, Western league, Monday stating that he would temporarily be out of the game owing to an accident in the Sioux City game last Friday.

Earl slid into second base, caught the toe plate of his left foot in the bag and tore a ligament loose in his leg. It was feared for a while that his ankle was broken.

The fast young outfielder is surpassing his brilliant record of last year, when he led the league in fielding.

Bells have been employed in association with religious worship since the early days of Egypt. Cymbals and hand bells and small crotals served for the festival of Isis. Aaron and other Jewish high priests wore bells of gold upon their raiment. In camp and garison the Greeks employed bells. The Romans announced the hour of bathing by their melody. Copper and tin, the old composition, is still regarded as the best bell metal. Steel has been tried, but does not make a successful bell. Glass bells are mellow and beautiful in tone, but the material is too fragile. The one metal which is impossible is that which everybody imagines makes the best bell--silver.

His first snow. Economy in clothes would come easily to some distinguished men, notably the late Duke of Devonshire. The latter clung with such devotion to one old hat which was always worn at the races that he and twenty ladies conspired to send him four and twenty pairs of the same style on the same day. It is not recorded whether he wore any of them.--London Standard.

Safeguarded. The following is a bona fide statement made by a seven-year-old girl who had listened to medical talk all her life. Being asked her father's business, she replied: "My father is a doctor, but he isn't a quack! My father got a license, so if he kills any one they can't arrest him!"--New York Times.

SHOT GUN USED TO KILL MAD DOG

A mad dog running amuck through the East End created considerable excitement in that section until it was killed Monday afternoon.

Prodding at the mouth and snapping at passers-by the dog ran upon a porch of the Gilkerson home at No. 2217 Seventh street. A hurry call was sent in for police but a neighbor dispatched the canine with a shot gun after first attempting to kill it with a base ball bat. The dog rushed at him so viciously that he decided to take no chances and dropping the bat he hastened home after his gun.

form, were promised by Casement, the attorney general asserted, that they would be sent to Berlin as the guests of the German government.

In the event that Germany won a sea battle he would land the brigade in Ireland to defend that country against England, and if Germany lost the war the German government would give each man 10 pounds to 20 pounds and free passage to America.

When the speaker added that Casement was treated with contempt by a vast majority of the Irish prisoners, Casement smiled and glanced toward Bailey.

Sir Frederick Smith followed the story of Casement's alleged machinations in Berlin with details of his trip by submarine to Tralee, where he landed on Good Friday with Bailey and a third man named Monteith, who is still at large. He also told of the sending of a ship with 20,000 rifles from Germany to Tralee and of how this ship was sunk at Tralee and the crew was captured.

The killing of witnesses for the crown began immediately after Sir Frederick concluded his address. Sir Roger began to talk more lively interest in the proceedings. He seized a pad of paper which had been provided for him and started to take notes of the testimony.

department today that no suggestions, either formal or informal, had been made by the south and central American diplomats in the conference which preceded the recognition of the Carranza government by the United States that their governments would view with approval intervention in Mexico by the United States.

The conference voted unanimously for the recognition of General Carranza, it was added, although the action was not binding upon any of the governments represented. While General Carranza awaits a report from General Obregon further negotiation between the two governments are postponed. General Obregon now is enroute to Mexico City to report to General Carranza.

Eliso Arredondo, General Carranza's ambassador here, said today he did not expect any new instructions from his government until General Carranza had met General Obregon.

State department advisers today said most of the Americans in the San Luis Potosi District had secured transportation either to the Mexican coast or to the United States. Only forty-eight remain. None is destitute.

The consul at Manzanillo said reservations had been made for Americans desiring to leave that port.

INDOOR WORKER IS HANDICAPPED

Office Men Often Pay Penalty of Indoor Grind

We can't all be devotees of the great out-of-doors, and so the office men and women too often pay the penalty of the all-day grind at the desk.

There comes in many cases the sluggishness that is bred of physical inactivity and the ailments that mark the indoor man for their own.

To say "I feel good all over" is to speak the acme of content and when this is supplemented by a steady, healthy increase in weight after a long period of suffering, the fortunate man usually feels that he wants to share his good luck with the less fortunate "other fellow."

It is this spirit that prompts so many prominent business men in every community to endorse Tanlac. Tanlac assists nature to throw off depression and in its place to stimulate the system with the result that energy and vigor return.

That "fired feeling" means a good deal more than is generally realized. It is one of the symptoms of a more serious condition. It is not laziness, it is a physical ailment that needs correction, before it takes a firm hold on you. The results of the Tanlac treatment are amazing.

Tanlac tends to make tired out, listless persons sturdy and of real manhood and womanhood like those old-fashioned but most sensible folks—the pioneers.

As a tonic, appetizer and invigorant, nothing ever has been discovered that will compare with Tanlac. It builds new tissues, vitalizes the blood, and acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and on catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes.

Satisfied users of Tanlac have proven to be Tanlac's best advertisers. Men and women, from the highest to the lowest walks of life, everywhere are testifying daily to the relief Tanlac has brought them. No other remedy has won such endorsements, that can only come from superlative merits.

Tanlac is being especially introduced in Portsmouth at the Fisher and Stretch pharmacy where the Tanlac Man is daily explaining its merits and the results that may be expected from its use.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of a scientific determination not to treat liver troubles with calomel, but to use a harmless substitute.

These pleasant little tablets do the good calomel does, but have no bad after-effects. They don't injure the flesh like calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why not try them at the expense of the teeth? They don't sometimes play havoc with the teeth. So do strong liquids. It is not that they are calomel, but to let the Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Many headaches, "dullness" and that "blue" come from constipation and a clogged liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "drowsy" and "blue." You will feel "fresh" and "bright" in a few days. All complaints of indigestion, constipation, etc., are cured.

Sprague the defendant. The jury consisted of Jacob Deemer, Frank Taylor, Orin Smedley, Ray Dever, George Schmidt and William Brannan. The case was decided in favor of the defendant.

TWO MAYORS MADE OPENING ADDRESSES, KAPS A SOUTH-PAW

The chief executives of Portsmouth and New Boston, H. H. Kaps and J. S. Davis, respectively, acquitted themselves with considerable glory Saturday afternoon, when they pulled off a double-header oratorical gem, preceding the opening of the 1916 season of the Ohio State League at Millbrook Park. Just as Mitchell moved down the Maysville battery, so Mayors Kaps and Davis upset tradition. The two well-liked officials seemed to know that the fans had gathered in the stands and on the bleachers to see the contest between Portsmouth and Maysville, and not to listen to long-winded addresses. Hence, the two officials did not burden the populace with any "high-falutin'" spread eagles. They simply said a few words concerning the high standard of the great American game, and dropped a few verbal bouquets concerning the local club owners. Their addresses were short and to the point and the two officials were given quite an ovation. Mayor Kaps tossed out the first ball, and many of his admirers were thunder-struck when they discovered him to be a south-paw. He chuckled the ball far over the heads of the players who had lined up in the vicinity of the home plate. The ball traveled almost to the right field fence, showing that Mayor Kaps has all sorts of power in that left arm.

The crowd almost ran into the four figures and the interest in the game was at fever heat at all times, the locals winning 1 to 0. Maysville sent up a fair-sized delegation—Messrs Russell and Watkins composing the crowd, but they weigh (bunched) 500 pounds.

C. & O. MAN HURT IN FALL OF ROCK

W. B. Perkins, manager of the W. B. Perkins' Company's C. & O. Northern camp on the Mervine hill cut back of Sciotoville, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death by a large rock about 7:30 o'clock Monday morning, when the rock rolled down a 150-foot slope. The rock grazed his face, cutting off the end of his nose and knocking two small holes in his forehead. He was unconscious for half an hour. Dr. J. F. York rushed him to Hopstead hospital, where the end of the nose was sewed back on with six stitches. Two stitches closed each cut on the forehead.

A Vicious Prisoner Knocks Down Officer; Sent To Workhouse

Joe Burke, aged 50, a machinist, and claiming Chicago as his home, was the most vicious prisoner the local police have had in their custody in many months.

Burke was arrested by Officer Beckett, Saturday afternoon, while trying to dispose of some clothes which Mrs. John Lawhorn, of 1517 Tenth street, later identified as the washing stolen from off a line in the rear yard of her home Friday evening. Burke was so incensed over his arrest that he told fellow prisoners he would assault the first officer or prison attache who stepped inside the cell room.

It remained for Frank Dressler, the prison cook, who recently had his skull fractured by falling from the top of a cell to the prison floor, to become the innocent victim of Burke's rage. When Dressler stepped inside carrying a pot of coffee with one hand and a pan of soup with the other Burke without warning or provocation struck him, knocking him down.

Sergeant John Smith rushed to Dressler's defense, throwing Burke into a cell and locking him up. A companion who was also arrested but later released when it developed he had nothing to do with the stealing, said Burke had boasted of being a bad man and of having "done time" in the Ohio penitentiary. Burke denied this, though admitting he had come down from Columbus two days ago.

Mayor Kaps thought he recognized Burke as a man he had seen at the Cincinnati workhouse a few months ago. "Thinking so isn't making it so," growled Burke as he was led out of the room, the court having fined him $25 and costs and sentenced him to 30 days in the workhouse on each of the two charges, assaulting Dressler and stealing the clothes.

Burke and Elton Ferguson, local negro, were taken handcuffed together to the workhouse by Chief Clark on an afternoon train.

Ferguson had been brought in by Officer Flowers upon orders from the mayor for not squaring up a fine assessed against him for "bootlegging" early in the year and for his failure to secure employment and go to work. The original fine had been reduced from $300 to $50 and only a $20 payment had been made on it and that only recently by the young man's father.

Apple Dumplings
Two cupful flour, two teaspoonsful baking powder, one-half teaspoonful salt, four tablespoonsful crisco, one-quarter cupful milk, five apples, sugar, cinnamon.

Sift flour, baking powder, and salt together. Work in crisco with finger tips, add gradually milk, mixing with knife to a nice dough. Roll one-half inch thick, cut into squares and lay in center of each an apple, pared and cored. Fill up centers with sugar and cinnamon and take corners off the dough and pinch together. Place in criscoed baking pan, dot over with sugar and crisco and bake in moderate oven for twenty-five minutes or till nicely browned. Serve hot with milk. Sufficient for five dumplings.

Rolls
Three tablespoonsful crisco, two tablespoonsful sugar, two teaspoonsful salt, two cupful scalded milk, one yeast cake dissolved in one-fourth cupful lukewarm water, flour.

Add crisco, sugar and salt to milk, when lukewarm add dissolved yeast cake and three cupful of flour, beat thoroughly, cover, and let rise until light. Cut down, and add flour enough to knead. Let rise again, toss on a slightly floured board, knead, pat and roll out to one-third inch in thickness. Shape with biscuit cutter. Dip the handle of a case knife in flour and with it make a crease through the middle of each piece. Brush over one-half of each piece with melted crisco. Fold and press edges together. Place in a pan greased with crisco one inch apart, cover, let rise and bake in a hot oven 12 or 15 minutes.

Twin Mountain Muffins
Three tablespoonsful crisco, one-fourth cupful sugar, one egg, two cupful flour, three teaspoonsful baking powder, one-half teaspoonful salt, three-quarters cupful milk.

Cream the crisco, and add sugar gradually, then the beaten egg. Next add the flour, sifted with baking powder and salt, alternating with milk. This will make 10

Bicycle Is Stolen

HURRAH! RINGLING DAY ALMOST HERE

Big Circus and Great Spectacle
Occupy Five Trains Crammed With Wonders.

The big event for which the youngsters and grownups have been impatiently waiting is drawing near, for on Thursday, May 18, Ringling Brothers' circus is to exhibit afternoon and night in Chillicothe. Expectancy never ran so high before and it is likely that this district will send a large delegation to feed the elephants. Unusual interest centers around the gigantic spectacle, "Cinderella," with which the famous showmen are this season opening their wonderful main tent program. "Cinderella" is probably the best loved of all fairy tales and to see it produced with more than 1000 persons, hundreds of dancing girls and glorious pageants, indeed gives promise of making "childhood's golden dreams come true." In the same great tent, will come the marvelous circus numbers in which 400 men and women performers, scores of trained animals and a galaxy of special features are introduced. The majority of the acts are entirely new to America, the Ringling Bros. having secured the pick of those European performers who have been obliged to seek engagements in this country because of the war. The all-new street parade will take place show day morning.

SNEAK THIEVES IN EAST END

Sneak thieves operated in the East End Saturday evening, visiting the home of Charles W. Brasie, solicitor for Samuel Levi & Co., furniture dealers, at 1651 Seventh street, and William G. Potts, a street car conductor, of 1734 Eighth street.

Entrance to the Brasie home was gained by unlocking the kitchen door. When Mrs. Brasie returned from a shopping trip down town about 9 o'clock she found the floor strewn with burned matches. About 35 cents in change, some old coins and souvenir canes were all that was taken, the robbers overlooking silverware and jewelry. Nothing was found missing from the Potts home. Officers Goodman and Shookwiler investigated both cases.

Auto Tag Is Traced

Common Sense Will Stop Horrible Rheumatism

The famous Opie, a great English painter, was once asked what he mixed his paints with. "Brains," he replied. Rheumatism cannot live long in a body that is cared for by a head full of brains. Brains or common sense is an avowed enemy to rheumatism. The poisons with which every rheumatic body is filled, arise in the kidneys, or stomach or blood. This poison goes into the blood. It is stronger than the ordinary force of the blood. It lodges in the muscles and joints. It gathers around nerves and presses upon them. It inflames the flesh. Pain comes and remains until the cause of the trouble, the acids and poisons, are driven out of the blood.

Salve and rubbing, lotions and baths, hot towels and water bottles will not reach down to the throne room of the trouble. What nature wants is more power to the blood. Many forms of rheumatism are caused by secret deplorable diseases. Nature surely uses common sense and tells the man to get rid of this bad blood. Here is a chance for you to use your common sense. How?

Get a bottle of S. S. S., the greatest blood purifier ever known. During 50 years it has cured thousands of cases of rheumatism and will cure you. It is purely vegetable and goes into the blood like rich food goes into it. It throws off all impurities and makes good, pure red blood.

Efficient Use of Gas In The Home

Article XV.--Gas Leaks

Furnace GAS, poor combustion, sewer gas and fumes from chemicals are often mistaken for and reported as GAS leaks. If an odor is noticed only when the GAS range is in use it is generally a poorly regulated burner or a poorly ventilated oven.

The GAS meter should be placed where it is easily and quickly accessible and nothing should be stored near which could possibly harm it. Although meters are well constructed, sudden jars or vibrations may cause them to leak. No unnecessary weight or stress should be put on GAS pipes or meters.

In case of a LEAK ALWAYS NOTIFY THE GAS COMPANY AT ONCE.

Dr. Edwards' STRENGTH TONIC

This Tonic which Dr. Edwards recommends is designed to restore strength to the weak, strength to the muscles, strength to the mind and strength to the nerves.

It is given to restore to the blood that rich red color which every weak and run-down person must have before he can get well and strong.

That Natural Ruddy Color

Of good health is absent in cases of thin, weak and run-down patients. Their cheeks, lips and eyelids lack that normal blood tint; and the feeling of well being is not with them. Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic restores the color to the blood, drives away that sickly greenish pallor of the complexion and supplies fuel for the vital fire in weak and thin people.

Nervous Patients

Dr. Edwards says patients are nervous because they do not have enough rich, red blood to feed the nerves. So he made this Tonic to give the blood just what it needs for that purpose.

Sugar Coated Tablets

Dr. Edwards has his Tonic put in a sugar coated tablet so it will be pleasant to take and will not injure the teeth. Pale, thin, weak and run-down people contract diseases more frequently than well ones. They are liable to have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bright's Disease, Nervous Dyspepsia, Insanity, Fevers and Consumption.

Don't Have These

Why not put yourself in shape not to have these diseases by letting Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic help you out of your nervous and run-down condition? It will build you up right from the start by increasing your appetite, toning up the nervous system, enriching the blood and increasing your vital force. For sale by your druggist.

NOTED AUTO RACER KILLED IN METROPOLITAN TROPHY RACE; RICKENBACHER WINS

New York, May 15.—Carl Limberg, an automobile racer, and R. Palotti, his mechanic, leading the field in the fifteenth lap of the 150 mile race for the Metropolitan trophy, were killed when the machine crashed into a guard rail on the Sheephead Bay track Saturday afternoon. Limberg, who had been taking the turns near the very top of the high saucer track, apparently lost control of his car, while rounding the bend at a speed of more than 100 miles an hour. Both men were catapulted 100 feet over the rail and crashed to the ground about 30 feet below. The driver was impaled on an upright piece of timber and was killed instantly. Palotti died on the way to the Coner Island hospital.

The machine, one of three French cars imported for the race by Harry S. Harkness, crumpled under the impact and burst into flames.

Limberg's wife was in the grand stand. As the cars dashed by she missed her husband's machine and realized that he was the victim of the accident. An attendant escorted her from the stand and an automobile carried her to the hospital as she was told Limberg had been taken there. Not until she reached there did she learn that he was dead.

Eddie Rickenbacher was an easy winner of the trophy in one hour, 33 minutes and 31 seconds, an average of 96.23 miles an hour for the 150 miles. Jules Devisne finished second in one hour, 35 minutes and 11 seconds and Ira Vail in one hour, 38 minutes and 44.68 seconds.

After the accident, Dario Resta forged ahead and led until the 14th mile when engine trouble forced him to quit. Ralph Mulford led in some of the early laps but was forced to quit by trouble with his engine before Limberg's accident.

A new world's record was established in the 20 mile race by Johnny Aiken, who won this event in 11 minutes and 16 seconds. The previous record was established on the same track by Dario Resta in 11:24.50.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quids? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenclosed surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

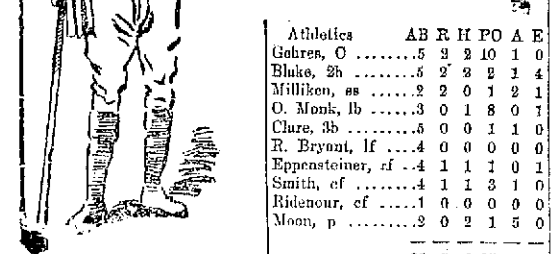

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senecio Tooth Paste. Senecio combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your

BARNEY TO STAGE FAREWELL RACE

BACK in 1902 two men started to fame; Henry Ford and Barney Oldfield. Ford was trying to build a racing car. Barney was with him trying to build a career as a race driver. The answer is obvious.

Barney Oldfield is going to drive a Delage car at the Sixth Annual International Sweepstakes Race, May 30th. This is Oldfield's last race, his last public appearance, and Oldfield proposes unequivocally to win and crown his racing career with what is considered the highest achievement in automobile racing. The Delage car that Barney Oldfield will drive is reputed to be one of the finest specimens of automobile construction in the world. It was one of the French cars built for the Grand Prix in Europe in 1914. It has a black type motor, with valves in the head, with a bore and stroke of 2.70 x 6.50, and a cubic inch piston displacement of 271.8. Lubrication is by force and splash. Barney finished third with this car at Elgin last year in the C. A. C. Cup Race. He also entered this car at Sheephead Bay, New York Speedway, last year, but was forced out at the end of sixteen miles with a broken piston and connecting rod. The name "Oldfield" and automobiles are synonymous. Barney is also bringing from Los Angeles to Indianapolis his front drive Christie car. However, there is no belief that this car will be in the race, but one can never tell what Barney has up his sleeve. One of Barney's favorite publicity stunts is his invariable stogie, which he wears in his mouth unlighted. His friends say they can tell just how Barney feels by the angle this stogie rests between his teeth.

1, 1915, approximately seven million, five hundred thousand gallons more whiskey has been used in the United States so far during the fiscal year ending June 30, than ever before.

Returns to the Internal Revenue Bureau approximate the total increase for the year 10,000,000 gallons. ## TO CELEBRATE 53RD WEDDING ANNIVERSARY NEXT SATURDAY

An error in the name made The Times say Saturday that T. J. Norton, of Ceredo, W. Va., had been initiated into Bailey Post No. 1, A. R. Friday night. It should have been Dr. T. J. Wharton, who practiced for 48 years at Ceredo, and who, with his wife, is here for an extended visit with their daughter, Mrs. Oliver Blood, of Park avenue. Dr. Wharton has retired from active practice and has been spending considerable time in New Hampshire. He is a son of Mr. E. W. Wharton, who founded the Portsmouth Public Library, and who was an honored resident of this city for many years. The late Capt. A. B. Alger was a brother-in-law of Dr. Wharton.

MAGNIFICENT NEW PIPE ORGAN FORMALLY PRESENTED TO BIGELOW

Formal presentation of the magnificent new pipe organ just installed in Bigelow M. E. church to this congregation took place Sunday morning and the brief exercises were very impressive.

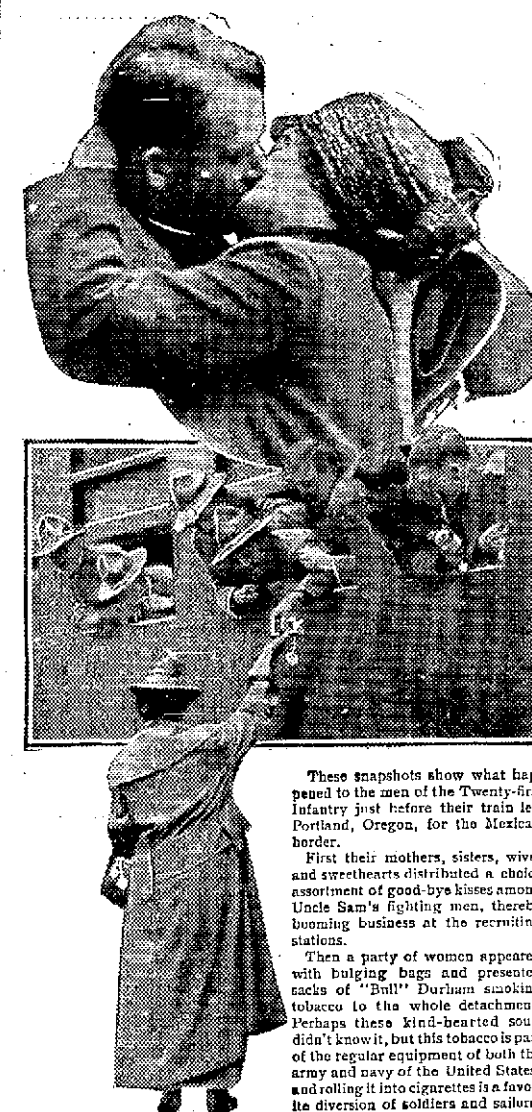

Mrs. R. B. Cunningham, president of the Ladies Aid Society, which organization raised money to buy the organ, made the presentation speech, and the speech of acceptance was made by Mr. Ben H. Dillon, president of the board of trustees.

The dedicatory prayer was read by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Chandler, and Rev. J. W. Dillon read a psalm.

At the conclusion of his talk Mr. Dillon presented the key of the organ to the organist, Mrs. Harley Marconette. The key was turned over to Mr. Dillon by Mrs. Cunningham.

The organ, which is one of the finest in the state, cost $5,700. It was manufactured by The Fegemeyer Organ Company, of Erie Pa. The dedicatory recital will take place on Thursday, May 18, and will be one of the musical events of the season.

Kisses and Smokes for American Soldiers on the Way to Mexico

OTWAY IS GRADUALLY ARISING FROM ASHES

Rev. J. J. Upton, of Otway, was in the city Monday, enroute to Glenn Springs, Ky., with his eight-year-old nephew, Ellsworth Upton, to spend a week fishing.

Rev. Mr. Upton baptized three persons by immersion at Berea, on Rocky Fork Sunday, and had three conversions at Moore's chapel. He reported Otway gradually rebuilding. J. R. Walsh is located in his new stone building and Towne Unger has also completed his new store. J. E. Blackburn is doing business in his old stone building, which escaped the recent big fire, and the Otway Knights of Pythias are erecting a new brick building on the site of the one destroyed by the flames. Dr. J. E. Gorchak has fitted up an office in his garage and is living upstairs in his barn, but using one of the state army tents for sleeping quarters. A number of other families are also still using the tents sent from Columbus.

Dress and Fashions. There are three cardinal principles among the dressmakers, milliners and designers who set the fashions of the world: Make the fashions this year so that last year's apparels cannot be made over. Do not make the materials too durable. Make the styles attractive. A French statesman, with the candor of a humorist, said, replying to the toast of a dressmakers' association in Paris, this finished his speech, "May your styles become more and more attractive, your material more and more flimsy." To have completed the ideal he needed only to have added, "Your changes more and more sudden, extreme and expensive." Harper's Weekly.

He called upon Charles Hitey, of Lawrence street. R. F. Ellisberry and J. R. Hannon. He was piloted around by Nick McMahon. Love of friends is one of the great big traits of Mr. Altman.

NEW NAME ON LIST

A real Guarantee
To be more than a mere "scrap of paper," a guarantee must be absolute—and backed by a concern able and willing to make it good.
The General's guarantee is not only absolute; it is backed by a business operating the world's largest roofing mills, and making one-third of all the roll roofing made in America. That's the guarantee behind

Certain-teed Roofing

The guarantee is for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). There is no evasion about it—no attempt to substitute a high-sounding something "just as good." There is no substitute for a real guarantee. You get an absolute guarantee on CERTAIN-TEED because the General knows that no better roofing can be made. Its raw materials and method of manufacture are both certified by the General's board of graduate chemists, and he knows he's taking no chance in guaranteeing them to you. That's what "CERTAIN-TEED" means—certified and guaranteed. Experience has proven that the guarantee is conservative, and that CERTAIN-TEED will outlast the period of guarantee.

The roofing felt, as it comes bone dry from the rollers, is given a thorough saturation of a special blend of soft asphalt, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then given a harder coating of another blend of asphalt. This keeps the inner saturation soft, and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing. Roofing is impervious to the elements only so long as the asphalt saturation lasts. CERTAIN-TEED retains its soft saturation, and is in good condition for years after the harder, drier kinds have become useless.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-covered shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

The Ladies Aid Society will have a call meeting at the M. E. church of Wheelersburg Tuesday evening. Important business is to be transacted and all the members are urged to be present.

Wheelersburg M. E. church was filled to overflowing Sunday evening when Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker, pastor of Trinity church Portsmouth, delivered the benediction sermon to the eighteen Wheelersburg high school graduates. Rev. Strecker took as his subject "The Way to Win" taken from the text "Even so run that ye may attain." In his sermon Rev. Strecker pointed out that the graduates are leaving school and hoped that they would advance to a higher education. He urged all who could to attend college. He also pointed out that some would enter into life's work and illustrated the difficulties and pitfalls that lie in one's way. "Whatever you do, do your best," said Rev. Strecker. "It is not brilliancy that counts but hard work." He also took up the subject of "courage."

He said "courage is the result of reasoning." Moral courage was the last point taken up. "Moral courage is the highest form of courage one can attain," asked Rev. Strecker. He explained that Jesus is the highest example of moral courage. The Pilgrim Singers, male quartet of Trinity church, furnished the music. They rendered five splendid selections.

Members of Concord Grange, Wheelersburg, held one of their best literary sessions of the year Saturday evening. The feature of the evening was the debate on "Shall We Spend Our Money for More Land to Leave Our Children or for Their Pleasure and Ours while We Are Living." The affirmative speakers, Louis Lang, Fred Bihl and Byron Jaynes, represented Concord Grange, while the negative side was taken care of by Leo Riepenhoff, Victor Doh and Clifford Schneider of Empire Grange. The judges decided in favor of Concord Grange. Another feature of the evening was the interesting talk given by Henry Pieper on "A Trip to the Bahamas." He recently returned from an extended trip to the Bahamas. At the roll call the members responded with short talks on "What I Did On Clean-Up Day." Miss Ethel Weber gave a very good reading on "Father and Mother."

CUP OF COFFEE LEADS TO BAD FIGHT; ONE NEGRO USES KNIFE, OTHER GUN

Within a few hours after a gang of laborers for the Edward Colvin construction camp, of West Virginia, had established a new camp along the Norfolk and Western railway near Haverhill, Sunday morning, trouble started in which pistols and knives were used.

The new construction camp was established at Haverhill early Sunday morning. When the commissary department was completed, breakfast was prepared and the laborers were summoned. A negro giving the name of Sam Jackson was sitting at the table when "Willie" Green came in; reached over, took his cup of coffee.

Green closely watched the movements and said: "What is you all tryin' to do, boy? Play bad?" A quarrel ensued during which Jackson told Green to keep the coffee, it is claimed.

Green reached over and struck Jackson across the head with the cup, cutting a small gash over his left eye. Then the two clinched and Green pulled out a knife. He slashed Jackson, it is said, across the right cheek and on the left arm, causing slight wounds.

The two were parted and Green went to his bunk and a little later returned with a 32-calibre Smith and Wesson pistol which he emptied at Jackson. All of the bullets went wide of the mark. The pistol play threw the camp into a frenzy of excitement and Sheriff E. W. Smith was called. As the sheriff was on the way to the camp, he passed seven negroes lying along the road but did not stop. On arriving at the camp he found the negroes causing the trouble had left.

Sheriff Smith remembered the seven along the road and returned. He found the men and searched them but failed to find the guns. Finally the negroes confessed that they had hidden their revolvers in some weeds. Sheriff E. W. Smith found them. Green, the gun user, and Sam Jackson and John Jackson were arrested and brought to the county jail. John Jackson and Green are charged with carrying concealed weapons and Sam Jackson is being held as a witness.

If Your Baby Has Bad Colds Follow Xenia Mother's Advice

Mrs. C. R. Shelton Found Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve the Ideal Treatment for "Baby."

Mother's know how difficult it is to treat little babies' colds. It seems almost impossible to give them strong internal medicines, and, yet, their colds can not be neglected.

Mrs. C. R. Shelton, 305 Hill St., Xenia, Ohio, solved this problem when she tried the Southern treatment—Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve.

Mrs. Shelton writes: "Our baby, twenty months old, had a severe cold and coughed almost every breath. I rubbed her with your remedy, and the next morning her cough had left her entirely. I must say your remedy is surely all it is claimed to be, for it acted like magic on her."

Vick's is the ideal household remedy for the many troubles for which every mother is the doctor. The formula is given on every wrapper. In addition, it is applied externally, so you can use it often and freely with perfect safety on the youngest member of the family.

For croup or colds just apply Vick's over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be inhaled. Croup is usually relieved in fifteen minutes—colds over night.

Vick's Vap-O-Rub comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00, at all drug stores.

"Mother's Day" Observed In City

Emblematic of the mother's love, small budding white roses and white carnations were worn Sunday by the citizens of Portsmouth.

"Mother's Day" was generally observed in the city Sunday. The sermons in the several churches breathed of the tender sentiment which pervades mankind throughout the civilized world on this glorious day. Telegrams and letters were mailed by those whose mother live in another city.

"Mother's Day" is becoming an institution honored and revered by most every nation in the world. The movement started in Philadelphia six years ago and spread with great rapidity throughout the United States. Then several of the European countries took up the idea, and now have a day set aside to honor womanhood.

Appropriate "Mother's Day" programs were rendered in many of the local churches Sunday.

RACE POSTPONED

Portsmouth people who went to Columbus to take in the big automobile race, returned home disappointed, as the race was called off on account of rain, a terrific shower breaking over the Capital City yesterday afternoon. The race will be held next Sunday.

Carnival Closed Saturday

The Eagles' spring carnival came to a close Saturday.

That there was no disorder of any kind was due largely to the police arrangements, Chief Henry Clark having the entire day force on duty in addition to a number of night patrolmen. Wherever they found any person acting unruly or appearing inclined to start trouble, they promptly hustled them off the grounds. The electric light power was shut off at 12:30 o'clock. Sunday morning found the carnival company on its way to Athens.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Sunday was an ideal day and the Bible school attendance took another leap upward, there being 584 more present Sunday than one week ago, when the total was 6281. The attendance has picked up nicely in the last few months and has not been below the 6000 for sometime. One year ago it was rarely that the total reached over the 5800 mark. Trinity still maintains the lead, having over 1000 present Sunday. Five schools were over the 500 mark. Sunday's record:

The city prison work gang Monday was found to be shy of two of its members.

William Frazier, who was serving out a fine for assaulting William George, also escaped from the work-gang Saturday afternoon.

RAY SALOON ROBBED; WHISKEY IS TAKEN

Alf Ray's saloon, at Tenth and Waller streets was broken into some time Sunday night and four quarts of whiskey were stolen.

Entrance to the saloon was gained by cutting out the bottom of a panel of a pine door just beneath a bolt with which the door was fastened. The robbers had entered the premises through a side gangway, and using a barrel, climbed upon a fence and then crossed a shed to behind the saloon. The discovery was made when the saloon was opened early Monday morning. The police were immediately notified.

A large plate-glass window on the west side of J. M. McGlothlin's grocery at 113 1/2 Eleventh street, was also found shattered Monday morning, but nothing was taken from the store, not even out of the window, the blind of which was down.

8 HOUR DAY TO BE TOPIC

Detroit, May 15.—The proposed eight hour day for engineers, firemen and other members of train crews, was expected to be the most important question at the National convention of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen which opened here today. The convention probably will not adjourn until June 1. The ladies' auxiliary also convened.

Munty speakers are to discuss phases of trainmen's fight for shorter hours. It has been claimed by members of the Brotherhood that the work now accomplished in a trainman's day of ten hours could be done in eight hours by increasing the speed of transportation service from present rate of 10 miles an hour to the 12 1/2 rate.

It is understood that constitutional amendment making Cleveland the permanent convention city of the organization will be introduced.

Dear Miss Wise:—My eyelashes are very thin. Please tell me what to do to make them grow.

ANXIOUS
You must be very careful when you apply anything to the eyes, that none of the material used gets into the eyes. In some cases the application of melted vasoline has helped the eyelashes to grow. You might try this ointment. You should make sure that the falling of the lashes is not due to weak eyes. A reliable oculist will be able to determine this.

Dear Miss Wise:—Do people actually write in the letters you print in the paper? Do you suppose they are sincere in what they ask you, or do you think most of them are just trying to be funny? I have heard a number of people say that the questions and answers newspapers ran were merely syndicate stuff, and did not originate in the office of the newspaper at all.

EDWARD.

Yes, the letters you see in this column every night are actually written in. Unfortunately, there are many more than I can take care of, and I am afraid all those people whose letters I do not get to are thinking very harsh thoughts of me, and probably are of the impression that the letters are "faked." I have no doubt but what a good many of the letters I get are sent in merely as a joke, but as long as they are likely to be of benefit to someone, I use them. A few letters come to the office that are evidently intended to be "smart." There are fewer of these than might be imagined, however, and they do not ruffle my temper much.

Dear Miss Wise:—My neck is beginning to tell my age, for it is rather wrinkled and thin. What do you advise me to do?

MRS. M. T.
The neck and hands are both very quick to give away one's age. I advise you to apply a liberal quantity of olive oil to the neck and massage it well into the skin. Also practice deep breathing.

Dear Dolly:—I am a girl of 15 and I would like for you to please answer my questions. I would like to know what will take moles off one's neck. And also will red stockings be worn this summer? I am five feet two and one-half inches tall, at what length should I wear my dresses, and how should I arrange my hair? How is my writing and spelling?

PRISBY
Wouldn't you rather have a mole than a sore or pimple or maybe a cancer and that is what is liable to happen if you monkey with a mole. They can be removed by an expert in that line but if I had one I sure would let it alone. Red stockings will not be worn this summer. They are too con-

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. A STYLE OF GOOD TASTE AND DESIGN

1636. Ladies' dress.

Gray broadcloth, with piping in a darker shade of satin, and fancy buttons complete this charming effect. The right front of the waist is shaped at the closing in unique outline. The neck may be finished in high collar style, with smart pointed tabs, or in low outline, by rolling collar and fronts as shown in the small view. The skirt is a three-piece model, with lap tuck at the centre front where the closing is effected. Satin, rum's veiling, gabardine, voile, cashmere and serge, gingham, linen and drill are also good for this model.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. It requires 6 yards of 44-inch material for a 36-inch size. The skirt measures about 3 1/2 yards at the foot.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.
CAUTION—Order adult pattern by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

COUPON

This pattern will be sent on receipt of 10 cents. Make number, name, address, etc., plain. Send to Pattern Department, Portsmouth Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

IN PORTSMOUTH FOR 42 YEARS

It is interesting to know that a big majority of the business concerns of Portsmouth imbedded their roots of organization in the city's history several generations ago and have through a great number of years been a vital part of the city's growth and improvement. In noting this week the forty-second anniversary sale of The Anderson Bros. Co. the older citizens who have known this concern for so many years cannot help but extend congratulations to this popular and growing store. Many there are who will recall the first Anderson store, a small affair on Chillicothe street just above Sixth, and then the different stores on Second street which sufficed for their period but which could not long hold the business of so lusty a youngster. It was through a vision of the future that contracts were let for the construction of the big building on Chillicothe street and even then it was thought that the needs of the store were taken care of forever. It wasn't long, however, until it was necessary to secure more room and the three story building adjoining the Crawford building on the north was purchased and merged with the bigger building. Persons going through the Anderson store today are well aware of the fact that no space is going to waste.

It is a pleasure to note the success of such concerns and to offer our congratulations along with the rest of the public upon this, their forty-second birthday.

SALESLADIES MAKE GOOD WIVES

"Have you ever noticed," said the man who stands on the First National Bank corner every day, holidays included, and who knows Portsmouth and Portsmouth people, "have you ever noticed the great number of Portsmouth wives who were formerly employed at Andersons' store?" We admitted that we had never considered the thought and as we appeared in no hurry to move on owing to the fact news was scarce anyway and a story might be secured, he proceeded to enumerate until we had heard of quite a sufficient number of Portsmouth wives whom their husbands had plucked from Andersons' store force from time to time. From the number quoted we are satisfied that the total number will run into the hundreds and experience has proven that these business girls have made the best of wives. Of course with a force as large as this store continually employs and since the store has been in business in Portsmouth for forty-two years, it is but natural to suppose that many of the hundreds and hundreds of salesladies that have been employed at this store should at this time be happily married.

Yellow Signs

Chillicothe street was decorated today with some yellow signs which the Anderson Bros. Co. had erected in front of their store to advertise their Anniversary Sale.

Did You Lose Something?

"It's strange why people who lose money and valuables don't think more often of going to the store in which they have shopped to inquire whether they had accidentally left their belongings on counter or case," said a representative of a certain big store that is now advertising a great sale. "We often have money and articles found and sent to the office for safe keeping and for which people never inquire," said he. Next time we lose something we know where we're going before we blow ourselves for the price of a Times want ad.

They're Fixtures

Thirty-two per cent of the people who make up the store force of The Anderson Bros. Co. have been with the concern over ten years.

Mindful of our obligation to you who have helped this store along to the FORTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY of its founding we ask you now to join with us in recognizing the event. Our duty as we see it lies in but one direction, namely, to provide

RARE VALUES THAT WILL TESTIFY TO OUR APPRECIATION OF THE PUBLIC'S PATRONAGE

For without it we could have scored no progress or attained no larger field of usefulness. Back of our purpose to make the character of the anniversary offerings measure up to the occasion there are months of ceaseless endeavor. We invite you cordially to come and share and profit through the birthday savings, a partial list of which appears herewith.

Andersons' Forty-Second Anniversary Sale Begins Tuesday Morning, May 16, and Ends Saturday Night, May 27!

FORTY-TWO years ago, on our opening day, we had few friends and fewer customers. Today we reckon our friends by the thousands—store friends whose ever widening circle gives fair promise for a progressive future. And we are deeply appreciative.

BEGINNING Tuesday, we will have eleven days of birthday celebration. Each day we shall strive hard to better the preceding one in the strength of the anniversary sale values.

VALUES THAT CREATE CONFIDENCE!

WE shall forego for eleven days, the thought of gain through customary profits for on innumerable items the prices have been cut to the quick to quicken the idea that we mean what we say and print only dependable facts.

Of all the Anniversary Sales we have held in the past there has never been a time when specials were so expensive to us as now. Practically every item now on our shelves when sold will have to be replaced at a higher cost. Nobody but a merchant can appreciate fully what it means to reduce prices in the face of unparalleled advances which are mounting up higher and higher every day.

YET this Anniversary Sale must be held. In scores of instances in providing specials for you we have verily shut our eyes and held our breath and marked the prices down. Some merchants might call us foolhardy; some may call us sensational; but we assure you that sensationalism is furthest from our minds, and what some may call foolhardiness is nothing more than an earnest and sincere desire to celebrate our anniversary as we have always done, with bargain giving that is heralded for miles and miles and which, more than anything else, maintains for us the reputation which we have of doing the really big things in merchandising.

Double Value For Coins Bearing Date of 1874

Andersons' Store was founded in 1874. Look among the coins you have in your possession and see if you have any bearing the date of 1874. If you have and you will present them at our store on Saturday, May 20th, they will buy twice their worth in merchandise. This applies to coins of from one cent to one dollar in denomination.

Keep a sharp lookout in the meantime and save your money dated in 1874. Remember, a quarter is worth 50c; a half-dollar is worth a dollar and a dollar is worth two dollars if presented on the above date. Begin now to hunt for money of this date. We will honor any number of coins up to ten from one person.

Help us to secure a great number of coins bearing the year of our starting in business. Look in your pocket book now. How many 1874 pieces have you?

We Want to Greet Our First Customers Again. Coin Purses Free!

The president of the Anderson Bros. Co., Mr. Wm. B. Anderson, has been actively connected with Andersons' store since its beginning, way back in '74. He, with his father, made up the first store force and waited upon all trade. It is one of his pet pleasures now to greet the older folks whom he served in the first Anderson stores. Many and many of them are now and have been from the first, regular patrons of this store. It is these first friends—the customers of 1874 to 1880—whom we wish especially to greet during this forty-second anniversary sale and we have set apart one day, Saturday, May 20th, as "FIRST CUSTOMERS' DAY." On this day Mr. Wm. B. Anderson will greet customers personally and to those who purchased merchandise of us prior to 1880 he will present a handsome and serviceable coin purse and book fold with the following in gold letters printed on it: "Presented by The Anderson Bros. Co. to our customers of 1874 to 1880."

These purses are absolutely free to those who purchased merchandise of us before 1880. If you are entitled to one, we want you to come on Saturday, May 20th, and get it. Mr. Wm. B. Anderson, the same person who perhaps waited upon you thirty-six years ago, wants to shake hands with you, renew your acquaintance if time has effaced the recollections, and present you with a souvenir purse. These purses are for both men and women. They cost you absolutely nothing. You don't have to buy a nickel's worth to get them. Remember the day, Saturday, May 20th only.

Special Bargains For Special Days!

In order to make every day of this great Forty-second Anniversary Sale a red letter day we have provided an unusual special for nearly every day of the sale. Each special is for one day only and will not be sold under any circumstances before the day as advertised below. Read carefully so you will not make the mistake of asking for the calico special on the day the apron special is offered. Planning your buying trips when the most desirable specials will be offered will mean a greater benefit to you from this sale.

A Favored Corner

If some one would ask you what location in Portsmouth was reached by the greatest number of street cars, what would your answer be? After a careful mental review of the city you would have to say that the corner of Third and Chilliote streets sees more street cars per day than any other spot in the city.

Store Closed

In getting the finishing touches to the preparations for their forty-second Anniversary Sale, as usual Andersons' store found it necessary to close part of the afternoon today in order to give the departments time to put out the sale goods. The big sale starts tomorrow, (Tuesday).

Extra Salespeople

To accommodate the great crowds which are sure to attend the Anniversary Sale, Andersons' Store has added extra salespeople as well as another delivery wagon. Past experiences in Anniversary Sales has proven that the regular force in many sections was not able to care for the great crowds of customers with the greatest despatch.

Children's Play Ground

While there is much talk of opening up the children's play ground in York Park again, mothers should not forget the fact that Andersons' Store has on their Third Floor a playground for children where they will find teeter-totters and sliding boards and roller-coasters and a big pile of ocean beach sand. Particularly during the big sale which starts tomorrow will mothers find this a nice place to leave the children in safety while they investigate bargains throughout the store.

Pink Instead of Yellow

For years and years in advertising their Anniversary Sale The Anderson Bros. Co. has always used yellow paper. Yellow in the newspaper edition and yellow for their circulars. This year owing to the European war yellow cannot be secured and their big four page ad today appears on pink, the noon extra stock.

21 Weeks in New York

Not a great many people are aware of the fact that buyers for the Anderson store spend at least a total of twenty-one weeks in New York each year securing merchandise for the Portsmouth store. This of course does not take into consideration the great volume of merchandise bought here in Portsmouth from manufacturers and their traveling representatives.

The New York buying keeps the merchandise at this store always up to date but it causes about seventeen thousand miles of travel on railways in the course of a year.

Testing The Fire Alarms

The crowd that gathered around the stranger who was apparently tampering with the fire alarm box at the corner of Third and Chilliote streets soon had their fears allayed when they learned that the stranger was a representative from insurance interests of the East sent here to test the automatic fire alarms at Andersons' store. All through the store are located automatic fire plugs which open up when a temperature of one hundred and fifty degrees heat is applied. Thus if a fire should break out in the building at night the heat would open a fire plug which would throw water on the fire and which would automatically turn in a fire alarm to every fire company in the city, as well as to instantly start gongs to ringing in the building and on the outside.

A Store Service That Builds

The Forty-two full years intervening since this store of yours was founded have been rounded out years of constant progress towards the end aimed at—the goal on which that golden word is written "Success." While we've lived and learned we're still learning something every blessed day from that wise old teacher "Experience" who is the best tutor of all. And to convey in small measure our appreciation of your patronage.

The Wash Goods Section Contributes Valuable Specials To This Anniversary Sale!

It isn't news to anybody that the cotton market is soaring and some people might ask how we can afford to offer special prices on cotton fabrics with conditions as they are. The answer is simple and short. In so far as the immediate profit from the sale of the cotton fabrics is concerned, we can't afford to make these prices. But this is our birthday celebration and a store like a person can afford to do things on its birthday that it couldn't keep up throughout the year. Then too, the friends that we make during this sale will visit us often throughout the year.

Double Value For Coins Dated 1874

Noticing that a local store advertised that all coins ranging in denomination from a cent to a dollar would be worth twice as much in trade on a certain day if the coin be dated 1874 we immediately got out our much abused wallet and after scrutinizing carefully every coin that the butcher, the baker and the milk man had graciously left us that we might have the pleasure of hearing the jingle a few hours longer, we spied a quarter bearing the date 1874. We immediately kidnapped it and placed it in a secret pocket for we are certain that just as soon as our wife sees that ad she will make a bee line for that poor old wallet of ours on the pretense of mending our clothes and all coins dated 1874 would surely be embezzled let alone the fact that all other coins regardless of date would be in jeopardy.

We've got a sneaking idea that for once we can beat the department store bargain game to a frazzle but we haven't fully made up our mind whether to take that 1874 quarter and make the store come across with a 50c necktie or get a pair of 50c hose for the Missus. For the sake of peace in the family perhaps the latter bargain would be the better for we feel sorry for any husband that is shrewd enough to make a better bargain at a department store than his wife.

Giving Away Souvenirs

On next Saturday, May 20th, Mr. Wm. B. Anderson of The Anderson Bros. Co. will literally be in the receiving line to greet customers. The store has advertised that on this day it wishes the store's first customers, those who bought goods from them from 1874 to 1880, to call and receive a valuable souvenir or remembrance. It is just a little birthday celebration, so the manager says, which goes to show that some stores think something of business besides making money. This store has been in Portsmouth for forty-two years and the desire to greet their first customers in a social way is but a parallel to the desire to greet our childhood chums. Mr. Anderson, in the early days of the store, waited upon most of the trade and it will be interesting for him to renew old acquaintances and to greet the people in a big store that he used to greet in a small store. To all who purchased at Anderson's Store between the years of 1874 and 1880 Mr. Anderson will present on Saturday with a neat coin purse and bill fold with the inscription printed in gilt letters as follows "Presented by The Anderson Bros. Co. to our customers of 1874 to 1880."

Two Offices in New York

A person sometimes wonders where in the world a large store gets all the merchandise it offers at special sale time, and feeling that a little information along this line would be appropriate at this time we interviewed officials of the Anderson store regarding the purchase of merchandise for their anniversary sale. We were surprised to learn that this concern has two New York offices, one on Fifth Avenue right in the heart of the ultra-fashionable district and another in lower New York in the manufacturing and jobbing district. It is needless to add that the Fifth Avenue office is exclusively for women's and misses' ready-to-wear garments while the downtown office looks after the more staple articles of merchandise. Besides the work done by both these offices in securing under-price merchandise as well as the low articles as they come out, this store also has a New York buyer, a man of many years experience in laying for department stores, who remains in New York constantly to purchase such merchandise as appeals to him. Very evidently there is a lot of history back of every article we buy at a sale like this great anniversary

A Favored Corner

If some one would ask you what location in Portsmouth was reached by the greatest number of street cars, what would your answer be? After a careful mental review of the city you would have to say that the corner of Third and Chilli-cothe streets sees more street cars per day than any other spot in the city.

Store Closed

In putting the finishing touches to the preparations for their forty-second Anniversary Sale, as usual Andersons' store found it necessary to close part of the afternoon today in order to give the departments time to put out the sale goods. The big sale starts tomorrow, (Tuesday).

Extra Salespeople

To accommodate the great crowds which are sure to attend the Anniversary Sale, Andersons' Store has added extra salespeople as well as another delivery wagon. Past experiences in Anniversary Sales have proven that the regular force in many sections was not able to care for the great crowds of customers with the greatest despatch.

Children's Play Ground

While there is much talk of opening up the children's play ground in York Park again mothers should not forget the fact that Andersons' Store has on their Third Floor a playground for children where they will find teeter-totters and sliding boards and roller-coasters and a big pile of ocean beach sand. Particularly during the big sale which starts tomorrow will mothers find this a nice place to leave the children in safety while they investigate bargains throughout the store.

Pink Instead of Yellow

For years and years in advertising their Anniversary Sale The Anderson Bros. Co. has always used yellow paper. Yellow in the newspaper edition and yellow for their circulars. This year owing to the European war yellow cannot be secured and their big four page ad today appears on pink, the noon extra stock.

21 Weeks In New York

Not a great many people are aware of the fact that buyers for the Anderson store spend at least a total of twenty-one weeks in New York each year securing merchandise for the Portsmouth store. This of course does not take into consideration the great volume of merchandise bought here in Portsmouth from manufacturers and their traveling representatives.

The New York buying keeps the merchandise at this store always up to date but it causes about seventeen thousand miles of travel on railways in the course of a year.

Testing The Fire Alarms

The crowd that gathered around the stranger who was apparently tampering with the fire alarm box at the corner of Third and Chilli-cothe streets soon had their fears allayed when they learned that the stranger was a representative from insurance interests of the East sent here to test the automatic fire alarms at Andersons' store. All through the store are located automatic fire plugs which open up when a temperature of one hundred and fifty degrees heat is applied. Thus if a fire should break out in the building at night the heat would open a fire plug which would throw water on the fire and which would automatically turn in a fire alarm to every fire company in the city, as well as to instantly start gongs to ringing in the building and on the outside.

A Store Service That Builds

The Forty-two full years intervening since this store of yours was founded have been rounded out years of constant progress towards the end aimed at—the goal on which that golden word is written "Success." While we've lived and learned we're still learning something every blessed day from that wise old teacher "Experience" who is the best tutor of all. And to convey in small measure our appreciation of your patronage

The Wash Goods Section Contributes Valuable Specials To This Anniversary Sale!

It isn't news to anybody that the cotton market is soaring and some people might ask how we can afford to offer special prices on cotton fabrics with conditions as they are. The answer is simple and short. In so far as the immediate profit from the sale of the cotton fabrics is concerned, we can't afford to make these prices. But this is our birthday celebration and a store like a person can afford to do things on its birthday that it couldn't keep up throughout the year. Then too, the friends that we make during this sale will visit us often throughout the year.

Double Value For Coins Dated 1874

Noting that a local store advertised that all coins ranging in denomination from a cent to a dollar would be worth twice as much in trade on a certain day if the coin be dated 1874 we immediately got out our much-abused wallet and after scrutinizing carefully every coin that the butcher, the baker and the milk man had graciously left us that we might have the pleasure of hearing the jingle a few hours longer, we spent a quarter hearing the date 1874. We immediately kidnapped it and placed it in a secret pocket for we are certain that just as soon as our wife sees that ad she will make a bee-line for that poor old wallet of ours on the pretense of mending our clothes and all coins dated 1874 would surely be embezzled let alone the fact that all other coins regardless of date would be in jeopardy.

We've got a sneaking idea that for once we can beat the department store bargain game. To a frazzle but we haven't fully made up our mind whether to take that 1874 quarter and make the store come across with a 50c necktie or get a pair of 50c hose for the Missus. For the sake of peace in the family perhaps the latter bargain would be the better for we feel sorry for any husband that is shrewd enough to make a better bargain at a department store than his wife.

Giving Away Souvenirs

On next Saturday, May 20th, Mr. Wm. B. Anderson of The Anderson Bros. Co. will literally be in the receiving line to greet customers. The store has advertised that on this day it wishes the store's first customers, those who bought goods from them from 1874 to 1880, to call and receive a valuable souvenir or remembrance. It is just a little birthday celebration, so the manager says, which goes to show that some stores think something of business besides making money. This store has been in Portsmouth for forty-two years and the desire to greet their first customers in a social way is but a parallel to the desire to greet our childhood chums. Mr. Anderson, in the early days of the store, waited upon most of the trade and it will be interesting for him to renew old acquaintances and to greet the people in a big store that he used to greet in a small store. To all who purchased at Anderson's Store between the years of 1874 and 1880 Mr. Anderson will present on Saturday with a neat coin purse and bill fold with the inscription printed in gilt letters as follows: "Presented by The Anderson Bros. Co. to our customers of 1874 to 1880."

Evidently no very young people can get in on this proposition for one will have to be at least 40 years old to be able to have bought merchandise before 1880.

Two Offices in New York

A person sometimes wonders where in the world a large store gets all the merchandise it offers at special sale time, and feeling that a little information along this line would be appropriate at this time we interviewed officials at the Anderson store regarding the purchase of merchandise for their anniversary sale. We were surprised to learn that this concern has two New York offices, one on Fifth Avenue right in the heart of the ultra-fashionable district and another in lower New York in the manufacturing and jobbing district. It is needless to add that the Fifth Avenue office is exclusively for women's and misses' ready-to-wear garments while the downtown office looks after the more staple articles of merchandise. Besides the work done by both these offices in securing under-price merchandise as well as the low articles as they come out, this store also has a New York buyer, a man of many years experience in buying for department stores, who remains in New York constantly to purchase such merchandise as appeals to him. Very evidently there is a lot of history back of every article we buy at a store like this great anniversary sale.

In Portsmouth

THE zeal and capacity for intelligent service displayed by every member of our organization in making ready for the recurrence of our birthday pleases us beyond the telling. And for our store friends it has done much more, because the enthusiasm with which they went about the task shows unmistakably in the splendid offerings gathered for the eleven days' sale. They have given of their best to the work and it is upon this solid foundation of goodness that the business has been erected. So you are very welcome friends, to these

Sixteen Men Saw the Mouse

Just to show how men notice store windows, especially when trimmed by certain kind of merchandise, was illustrated Saturday evening at Andersons'. In preparation for their Anniversary Sale this week they had one large window filled with women's lingerie or modin underwear. A little mouse happened to get into the window and was seen at different times throughout the evening by some sixteen men who very kindly stepped on the inside of the store to report the presence of said mouse, fearing the damage to the dainty lingerie.

We were just wondering if that many men would have seen that mouse if it had been in a shoe window.

Eight Pages

Besides the four pages of advertising on a pink section in this edition of the Times, Andersons' Store carried a page each in The Vancueburg Sun, Oak Hill Press, Waverly Watchman and the Greenup Republican, making a total of eight full pages of advertising to start one sale. Their Anniversary Sale is always advertised very thoroughly for fifty miles around and Portsmouth people should remember that at this sale more than any other, they should not delay their purchases for hundreds and hundreds of out of Portsmouth buyers will be at the sale to pick up perhaps the same bargains you will be after. The store officials inform us that specials once sold out cannot be replaced owing to the advancing market.

The Markets Are Advancing

Every store in the community is lamenting the fact that merchandise of every description is going higher and higher in price, and the worst feature is that there seems to be no let up nor any set maximum at which prices will stop their soaring. Many well informed merchandise men freely say that it will be years before many of the commodities will even venture off their high perch in price. There is no getting around the fact that with conditions as they are, it behooves everybody to pay more attention to the purchases they make and to anticipate their wants where and when possible. When local merchants offer meritorious sales the buyers and users of their merchandise will do well to take heed. The advertising columns of the Times these days will point you to many a safe stepping stone of economy. In many instances merchandise can still be purchased at old or low prices but merchants everywhere state that when their present stocks are sold that prices will necessarily have to be raised. It is the part of thrift to buy while buying is good.

Use The Rest Room

Out of Portsmouth persons as well as Portsmouth people who attend Andersons' Anniversary Sale are requested to use the store's rest room which is located on the second floor. Here you will find rocking chairs and writing desks and stationary for your convenience in writing letters or when fatigued from shopping you may rest or meet your friends. This room is quite popular with a great number of people and would be more popular if more people knew about it. The store requests that everybody feel free to use this rest room and make it their headquarters when in the shopping district.

A Week's Work

Did you know that it takes a sign painter one week of steady work to make enough signs to place on all the special lots of merchandise offered at low prices at a sale like The Anderson Bros. Co. are now beginning. Without a clearly printed sign stating the price and particulars regarding every lot of merchandise offered, a big sale would be an endless jumble of unidentified merchandise. With a sign on each lot, customers can very conveniently visit the store and select such merchandise as they want. To assist you in finding the articles as advertised in this edition of the Times, this store has taken particular pains to see that every item herein advertised is plainly designated with a price ticket.

PORTSMOUTH BOY IN HOUSE FIRED BY MEXICANS

Private Vernie Johnson In Real Border Skirmish; Several Americans Killed

Graphic details of a border skirmish between a detachment of United States troops and a band of Mexican bandits is given in a letter received by The Times from Private Vernie Johnson, a Portsmouth boy.

A squad of eight Americans were surprised in a small camp, Glenn Springs, Texas May 5, and several were killed and wounded before the fight ended. The party of American troops took refuge in a small house while the Mexicans were attacking and a fight ensued which lasted for an hour or more. Then the bandits set fire to the building and drove out the soldiers. In writing of the exciting skirmish, Private Johnson says:

The Mexicans crossed the border to raid Glenn Springs. Troop A, of the Fourteenth United States Cavalry, having a detachment of nine men in Glenn Springs.

When the bandits arrived, the guard gave the alarm. Some of the men were in a tent and as soon as they heard the report of the guns, they went into the house, where they would have protection.

The bandits surrounded the little camp and continued to fire for more than an hour. Then the Mexicans set fire to the house to burn the soldiers out. But after the fire started, one of the bandits shoved a shot gun through one of the windows and shot Joseph Birk, in the leg. He then turned to Sergeant Charles E. Smith, who was in command of the detachment and said: "I am shot."

Said He Would Fight Until He Died

Joseph Birk, being a man with good nerve, said that it did not hurt much: "I will fight until I die."

By this time the fire was getting so fierce that they could not stay in the house any longer and the Mexicans had quit firing and were waiting for the soldiers to come out. The bandits knew the soldiers could not stay in much longer, so Sergeant Smith gave the command to fire a volley to draw the fire of the Mexicans so they would not have any aim at the doors as they came out of them.

Sergeant Birk said: "Let's go," and led the way out as he jumped out the door. He was shot twice in the same leg. Private Cohen started to jump out the window and was about half way out when a bandit shot off his head.

Sergeant Smith was the next to make for the door. There were about twenty-five Mexicans around and they opened fire as he ran through the line, but he had his automatic pistol in his hand, which was working like a machine gun. He moved the bandits down as fast as they stepped into his path.

At a distance of about one hundred yards, he began using his rifle. He would fire about ten rounds then retreat, crawling across the broken ground until he reached the cañons and rock, where he securely hid himself.

Killed Three Mexicans With His Pistol

Private Frank Dufres then followed Sergeant Smith and ran in the same direction as Birk, killing three Mexicans with his pistol on his way out. Privates Tyres and Hudson Rogers were the next to come and were running side by side a short distance from the camp when they were fired upon and a bullet struck Rogers in the forehead, which we suppose caused instant death.

Private Calse was the next to leave the burning shack. As he was running from the camp, a bullet struck him in the left side, passing through his lungs.

Privates Charles Dempsey and Frank Craske did not have time to get into the house, when the fight started, so they went to the forage tent, but there was not anything there to hide behind but a tripod.

Soldier Boys Hide Behind Tripod

While they were in the tent, the leader of the bandits came in and lighted a match, but he failed to see the boys behind the little tripod.

After the fire had died down and the camp was shadowed, Privates Dempsey and Craske left the place without a wound except their feet and legs were filled with cactus needles from running across the desert.

The little detachment was surprised by the sudden attack and were all asleep at the time, except Private Dufres, who was on guard duty.

The poor wounded soldiers lay out in the mountains from one o'clock until nine the next morning. Then as the sun came up the boys went to the top of the hills to see if the bandits had gone but when they reached the top, they found that the bandits had not left.

Capt. Hullett left Alpine May 5, with a detachment of eight men, Vernie Johnson, of Portsmouth, being in the detachment.

Capt. Hullett and his men camped at Marathon on the night of the fifth, not knowing about the attack that took place at 11:45 p. m. Capt. Hullett and his detachment arrived in Glenn Springs at 4:30 in the morning of the sixth, expecting to relieve the other detachment for target practice, but was surprised when they found the detachment had been attacked.

Capt. Hullett and his men went to the Mexicans had taken the troop's horses and were soon in pursuit of the bandits.

Captain Hullett returned to Glenn Springs on the ninth. Will close, thanking you very much for the above favor.

PRIVATE VERNIE JOHNSON,
Troop A, Fourteenth U. S. Cavalry,
Alpine, Texas.

WHAT YOUR NERVES NEED

Whatever medication, whatever renewed strength and vigor can be imparted to the nerves must reach them through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a nerve tonic but they act on the nerves through the blood, enabling the blood to carry to the nerves the elements needed to build them up.

Neuralgia, sciatica, sick headache and a number of more severe nervous troubles are properly treated by building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and are often entirely corrected in this way.

If you are nervous you can help yourself by refusing to worry, by taking proper rest, sleep and vacations, by avoiding excesses and by taking out-door exercise. For medicine take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the non-alcoholic tonic.

Sufferers from nervous disorders who have been taking treatment without benefit should investigate the tonic method. Write today to Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System." It will be sent free on request.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 60 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

FIVE HORSES ROASTED ALIVE IN BLAZE AT MANCHESTER

Fire of unknown origin, which was discovered at 10 o'clock Saturday night, completely destroyed the fine big barn of R. H. Ellison, a resident of Manchester, Adams county, Ohio. Five horses, which included a match team valued at $5,000, fifty tons of hay, two new buggies, several engines and much modern farm machinery were destroyed by the fire. When the fire was discovered the heat was so intense that no attempt could be made to rescue the five horses, which were roasted alive. Mr. Ellison, who is well known in this city, places his loss at $5000 with only $1,000 insurance.

No other property was endangered as the barn is 500 yards from the Ellison home.

For some time grain had been stolen from the second floor of the Ellison barn and it is presumed that thieves visited it again Saturday night and dropped a lighted match.

Enveloped In Shower Of Steam; Engineer Willis Badly Scalded

Jacob Willis, aged 35 years, stationary engineer, was badly scalded when a blow-pipe burst in the boiler room of the Harbison-Walker Refractories Company's plant at Star Yards, Sunday night, at 10:30 o'clock.

Before Willis could get out of the way he was caught in a shower of steam and hot water and was scalded from the wrist up to his neck, also received a couple of burns on the knee and was slightly scalded about the hands and arms. Fellow workmen came to his rescue, but he was able to walk to his home in Star Yards unassisted, and there Dr. S. S. Haldeman, of this city, and Dr. J. W. Hutchens attended him.

Lynn's ambulance later removed the scalded man to Hempstead hospital. He was reported resting easily Monday morning.

Dynamite Cap Explodes; Boy Is Seriously Injured

Alfred Blanton, aged 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Blanton, Millar's Run, near Lucasville, was badly injured Sunday morning when a dynamite cap, which he had taken from a tool box at the Daniel Egbert farm, exploded tearing away three fingers and his thumb from the left hand, cutting a deep gash in his head and bruising his chest, arms and legs. Mrs. Hilling and Webster, Lucasville, were called and dressed the boy's wounds Sunday evening.

Alfred and his older brother broke open a tool chest at Dan Egbert's farm and took several dynamite creek, which flows through the small caps. They then went down to the valley, and were playing with the caps, when one of them was exploded between two rocks.

The screams of the boy attracted the attention of Dan Egbert, who went to the scene at once. The boys claimed that some man had come past with a shot-gun and had emptied the contents at them.

Mr. Egbert summoned the Lucasville physician and called Sheriff E. W. Smith. When the sheriff arrived, it was found that the boys had taken the dynamite caps, and the story of "the man with a shot-gun" was an invention.

It is supposed by the authorities that the boy was pounding the dynamite cap with a rock when it exploded, for all but one of his fingers on the left hand were blown off and his face and body were covered with small wounds, bruises and cuts caused by flying gravel and sand.

Hiram Blanton moved to Millar's Run several weeks ago from Rowan county, Kentucky.

The little boy was somewhat better Monday morning, although it is believed that the lone finger on his left hand will have to be amputated.

Visit City, Start Home In Taxi, M'Daniels Cut, Warrant Issued

Thomas McDaniels swore out a warrant in police court Saturday for the arrest of a man answering to the name of Charles Gentry, who, it is alleged, cut him on the left jaw and wrist late Friday night. The men both worked on the Tim Jewett farm, on the Scioto Trail. They were in the city and started home in a taxi-cab. They quarreled and McDaniels says Gentry pulled out a knife. McDaniels was cut the second time while throwing Gentry from the cab near Hempstead hospital.

McDaniel later had his wounds dressed at the hospital. Gentry was reported to have left the Jewett farm Saturday and was last seen going out the pike. The police have since been unable to learn of his whereabouts.

One Negress Badly Cut And Another Is Scalded In Fight

Fanny Adams, a negress of the Jones and Gray construction camp, Pike county, was arrested Sunday at the Reinhart, Dennis construction camp, near Sciotoville by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Baer on a charge of scalding Katie Duffs, colored, last Thursday morning following a fight at the Jones and Gray camp. The woman was brought to the county jail where she will be held pending investigations.

The two negresses became enraged over a trivial matter and started fighting, according to their stories. Fanny Adams claims that Katie Duffs stabbed her on the left cheek and across the right cheek bone with a knife and to retaliate she poured hot water on her. Three stitches were required to close the wounds of the Adams woman on the left cheek and one for the right cheek.

Katie Duff's condition is considered serious. She is at the Hempstead hospital where Dr. J. D. Hendrickson is caring for her burns. The whole right side of the woman's face and breast is almost cooked and she is suffering excruciating pains.

Both women seemed to be unconcerned about the fight and both tell about the same story. Fanny Adams disappeared shortly after the fight and was found at the Reinhart Dennis camp, Sunday.

Rarden Gang Rounded Up; Other Arrests Made Sunday

Early Sunday morning Deputy Sheriff Rome Arthur and Detective Andy Leslie swooped down on a gang of men, near Vera station, just north of the city, and arrested eight on various charges. According to the officials, it has been the custom of "The Rarden Gang" to come to Portsmouth every Saturday night and become intoxicated, and then on returning, terrorize residents in the vicinity of Vera with their shouts and deeds.

The men claiming to be from Rarden gave their names as Pleasant Lewis, Frank Lewis, Charles Duke, James Maddox and Lloyd Hoop. The officers quickly rounded them up and placed them under arrest.

On the way back to the city the officers encountered two negroes, who started down over the railroad bank when they saw the officers. They were captured and gave their names as William Horn and William Ford. Horn had a dressed chicken in a sack, which he claimed he found along the railroad track, and two deadly looking razors.

Near the city the officers took John Collins, another negro, into custody on a charge of trespassing. Collins was just crawling into an empty sewer-pipe when the officers arrived.

The five men from Rarden were put off an extra freight early Sunday morning by Conductor Sam Kinsey, near the Scioto bridge. Charges of train-riding were placed against them. Horn is charged with carrying concealed weapons and Ford and Collins with trespassing.

The prisoners were arraigned before Squire John W. Byron Monday and were each fined $10 and costs. Being unable to pay, they were remanded to the county jail. William Horn was bound over to the grand jury on a $300 bond, charged with carrying concealed weapons.

ACHES AND PAINS

Don't neglect a pain anywhere, but find out what causes it and conquer the cause. A pain in the kidney region may put you on your back tomorrow. Don't blame the weather for swollen feet, it may be an advanced warning of Bright's disease. A pain in the stomach may be the first symptom of appendicitis. A creak in a joint may be the forerunner of rheumatism. Chronic headaches more than likely warn you of serious stomach trouble. The best way is to keep in good condition day in and day out by regularly taking GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL Capsules. Sold by reliable druggists. Money refunded if they do not help you. Beware of substitutes. The only pure imported Haarlem Oil Capsules are the GOLD MEDAL.

THE NEW STATION

Had some friend of ours, in no way connected with the corporation, have suggested the Norfolk and Western would locate its new station on north Chillicothe street, we would have tossed it away as one of the air castles he was ever building, but now that it is the officially announced site to be and though its selection is greatly surprising, we must confess that it rather appeals to us.

Of course, it is not the site the railway itself prefers, or would have chosen, but all things considered, it is the most desirable obtainable at cost anywhere within reason. Railroads are strictly business institutions and none are better conducted as such than the Norfolk and Western. Their investment in stations must be limited by the patronage of the given part. The building must be commensurate in appearance and accommodations with the point served and this implied that not too great a proportion of a proper investment shall go into the site, for that, necessarily, would mean skimping in the building. So with all these requirements held in view Chillicothe street has been determined upon. There the station will work the most marked improvement that will be of the greatest benefit to the city, because the land it will occupy is vacant and owing to its peculiar situation it would otherwise be an indifferent section at best. Then this feature should be borne in mind, Chillicothe street must ever be the main artery of entrance into the city and future residential expansion will be largely along it. True enough the new site seems just now a trifle remote and out of the way, but we must consider Portsmouth has not only grown big, but she is more than steadily growing bigger and it is no longer possible to have places right under your nose. So taking all these things into consideration and that a second station is going to be erected in the upper East End to meet the requirements of that expanded section, the problem of a new station has been solved in a highly satisfactory way.

Anyway, in the near gratification of its desire for a depot that will reflect in appearance and appointment the consequence of the city, for this they know it will, the public is in no disposition to find fault with a location that fairly meets all conditions.

AS TO STREET FAIRS

It seems to us that there ought to be some form of stricter regulation in Portsmouth in regard to street fairs or carnivals. They ought to be taxed, and the tax or license, put at such a figure that it will have a tendency to discourage all but the very best shows from showing here. There are several reasons for this. One is that these shows take a great deal of money out of a town and they leave practically nothing. They generally seek to give their performance under the auspices of some fraternal society, giving a percentage of the receipts. In return the society does a vast amount of boosting, a lot of hard work and invariably reaps but small reward. Then these carnivals attract an undesirable element to a city and oftentimes robberies and other forms of depredation follow in their wake. It is necessary too, to exercise special police supervision over the show grounds and vicinity. The performances are mostly of the cheapest kind and in many cases the management seems to cater mostly to the lower, rather than the higher tastes of the public. The slightest laxness on the part of the authorities is generally seized upon and taken advantage of to pull off some vulgar performances. Last year Portsmouth had seven or eight of these carnivals. This year we have started out with a two weeks' affair and we suppose that one carnival will follow fast upon the heels of another unless something is done to check the invasion. Let the matter be taken in hand early in the season and if we must have street fairs let us at least get enough money in license fees to pay for the cost of police protection.

The Bluefield Telegraph is responsible for the announcement that imported Swiss cheese, which is made in Wisconsin has doubled in price. It is silent as to what is the increase in the radii of the smell.

A good many houses are building along Chillicothe pike. And to think how short is the time since we thought that "way out in the country."

Free trade continues to work its deadly spell upon the industries of the country. The Baltimore and Ohio railway is carrying an advertisement in The Times that it wants workmen of all sorts from skilled machinist to day laborer. And the story back of that is that railroads of the west find a shortage of labor in every department.

The United States government is about to consummate its bargain to buy from Denmark the island of St. Thomas, in the Caribbean Sea. St. Thomas has an area of 33 square miles and a population of 12,000 all negroes, but it is neither for its size, nor its people it is bought, though Denmark throws in the island of St. Croix, three times as large, and several other isles to make the bargain good, but our government wants it because it has the finest harbor in a thousand miles, and it will make a naval base for the guarding of the Panama canal.

And we shudder to think what would have happened to that Ford had we projected our all too solid 212 pounds of flesh into it.

SUMMER FASHIONS

(Bluefield Telegraph)

This is a day of clearer vision. A hot sun and a dainty voile frock help things out. Men are beginning to see through things that puzzled them. They get a new outline. Matters begin to take shape for the summer months. Definite plans on vague subjects are now being made. True there is a shadow of doubt at times, but the general situation is getting clearer. By July we should be able to look through the summer with much satisfaction. That is, provided the fair sex conducts itself according to the fashion trends.

We suppose that Colonel Roosevelt had a spasm of indignation Thursday morning when he opened the pages of his Saturday Evening Post and found out that some of his warm admirers and most confidential counsellors had expended sixteen thousand dollars in advertising in that popular family journal to explain to the citizens of America that the Colonel was the greatest man in the world and the only man fit to run our own government. Yes, it must have come as a shock to the Colonel that there lived and breathed a man who did not know that the Colonel was the greatest man in the world.

It is an observation that some men are born great, some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon them, but one T. R. insists upon talking himself out of any claim to greatness he may have ever possessed.

True to his Spanish ancestry Mr. Obregon is everlastingly putting it off until tomorrow.

Germany assures us that the commander of the submarine that inadvertently blew up the Sussex has been "appropriately" punished. Not having to explain what "appropriately" means, she discreetly refrains from offering any definition.

Premier Asquith asserts England has furnished more than five million soldiers since the war began. That being so it becomes opportune to inquire: "Where are they at?"

The Naval League has sued Henry Ford for an even hundred thousand dollars damages for alleged libel. Evidently it too is after some free publicity.

When there are two or more ladies in the family, a man has to expect, as he starts in on one of his long humorous stories or on a few clarifying remarks about the tariff or some such paramount issue, to be interrupted by two or three andibly whispered observations, of the very minimum, concerning the latest crocheted stitch or the amount of shortening in the baking powder biscuits.—Ohio State Journal.

While Archie Roosevelt may be all for preparedness it has been suggested that he take a moment from his regiment for spelling. On file in a headquarters in Boston is a letter of introduction from young Roosevelt given a young man who had a new campaign song. "This will introduce so and so," says the letter, "who has a new 'campaign' song." The quotation marks are not Archie's.—Boston Advertiser.

A Methodist conference has decided that the word layman does not include lay-woman. May be so, may be so, but there wouldn't be much to the Methodist church, nor any other, for that matter, were it not for the women.

There is one more entry in The Times eorn contest, which makes four altogether or just one-third the required number. Now is the time to enter.

The venerable, but still vital, veteran, Isaac R. Sherwood, says he will be pleased to run for congress again in the Toledo district. We thought he would think better of it and just as rightly as we think he will be elected. The people have formed the good habit of electing the gallant general and can't break it.

BedTime Tales

Billy Robin's Sharp Eyes

Darr! Darr! Darr! Patter! Patter! puzzled voice. "Anybody can see that the garden is so full and moist and that after a while, there will be a lot of good worms there. But Billy's too soon, too soon, soon."

Then suddenly and most unexpectedly, just when everybody had given up ever seeing the sun again, it popped and down on the garden he shone.

Five minutes before the sun came out the garden was deserted. Mr. Garden Toad was napping under some leaves and twigs; Billy Robin and Mrs. Billy were snuggled down into their nest in the apple tree; Mrs. Hen and all her family and neighbors were safely in the barn, and even Chirpy Sparrow was hiding in his nest under the eaves.

But five minutes after the sun shone—that is another story!

Perhaps you yourself have watched a garden after a warm spring rain. If you have, you know just how quickly the garden folk all come out to enjoy the sun and to get a bit to eat. Wouldn't you think they would be hungry on days when the rain falls all day—and all night too?

A half a dozen little sunbeams wiggled their way through the leaves and twigs and landed squarely on Mr. Garden Toad's shut eyes. And of course that waked him up. "Well, well, well," said he, in surprise, "look what's happened! I never even hoped for any sunshine to-day!" And he hopped right out from his shelter onto the garden walk. "Maybe the sunbeams will wake up a fly or two for me. Let's see."

Some more sunbeams danced up under the eaves and told Chirpy Sparrow there was plenty of time for some supper before sunset; some others beckoned to Mrs. Hen through the barn window and she and all her brood immediately appeared at the barn door.

And just at that minute Billy Robin darted down into the middle of the flower bed. "Now what's he doing already," "Guess he knows, knows!" doing already, already?" croaked Mr. Garden Toad in his most

"No worms there, no worms there!" cackled Mrs. Hen, from the barn door. "I guess I can see!"

Billy Robin made answer. He merely braced himself for a long, hard pull, and then—out from the ground—pulled a fine, big earthworm!

"Humph!" said he, when he had eaten the worm and could talk. "You folks have no eyes! Why don't you look? Any robin could have told you just where the worms are in this good earth are, for any through the barn window and she and all her brood immediately appeared at the barn door."

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, May 15.—Phyllis, the little brunette—you may remember her—second from the left—is out of the Ziegfeld shows. There is no part for her in the 1916 production and a lot of people will miss her. There have been unhappy times for Phyllis lately. She is a ward of Flo Ziegfeld and more than once has proved a care for him.

Several times she has been taken to court and fined for appearing in the streets incompletely and improperly clad, because she and the police held different views as to what constituted modesty.

Recently she was sent up to Hastings to be under the care of Billie Burke who has always been interested in her wayward ways but she carried on so that she was brought back to town and sent to Bill Snyder at the Central Park Zoo.

Phyllis is a one year old brown bear, whose fines for appearing in the street without a muzzle have become too great a burden. Bill Snyder put her in a cage with a sister bear and she appears as happy as a cricket.

This is the story of "The Affable Young Man" or "The Mystery of the Dismantled House" and it comes sizzling with pathos and morals from Jersey City. Charles M. Curtis and his wife conduct a boarding house there. They had—past tense is used advisedly—five roomers.

About a week ago a sprightly young man appeared and rented the only vacant room. He said he had very good prospects in Jersey City and the Curtis maid, in fact every time they got together the fur began to fly—that is rhetorically speaking, latchkey.

Things went smoothly for a week then while the Curtis family was away the affable young man found them in another discussion he called a taxi and with the maid, Mrs. Nijinsky and the little Nijinsky moved a little bit farther uptown.

The Russian dancer is to remain in New York all summer and is scheduled to appear in a number of private performances before wealthy society people.

Paul Swan, the old handsome, who used to appear in vaudeville as the handsomest man in the world, has written a play in which Frank Daniels is to appear. Swan came from a farm in Iowa and didn't know he was such an old dear until he struck Broadway and he immediately became the pet of a crowd of Broadway beauties. He capitalized his peach blown cheeks and curly locks by appearing at Hammerstein's—where they would stand for anything.

He soon got tired, however, of being called a beauty and retired from the stage and took a course in dramatics. That he was successful is proved by the fact that his first effort was accepted.

Most every day when I get up, The sun looks in at me, And sends a shining ray to say, "I'm rising, too, you see."

And then he warms all out-of-doors,

And when at last I go to bed, He goes behind the hill; But pretty soon there is the moon To watch o'er me still.

CASEMENT IS ARRAIGNED; CHARGED WITH TREASON

LEADER OF SINN FEIN REBELLION; FACES MAGISTRATE

London, May 15.—Sir Roger Casement, leader of the Sinn Fein rebellion in Ireland, was arraigned today in the Bow street police court, and charged with high treason.

The few spectators who were permitted to enter the famous old police court were considerably surprised when a second prisoner was placed beside Casement in the dock. The man was Daniel Julian Bailey, a private soldier. He was jointly charged with Casement with high treason, but his "exact" connection with the Sinn Fein has not so far been made public.

In the formal charge Casement is described of no occupation and no fixed abode.

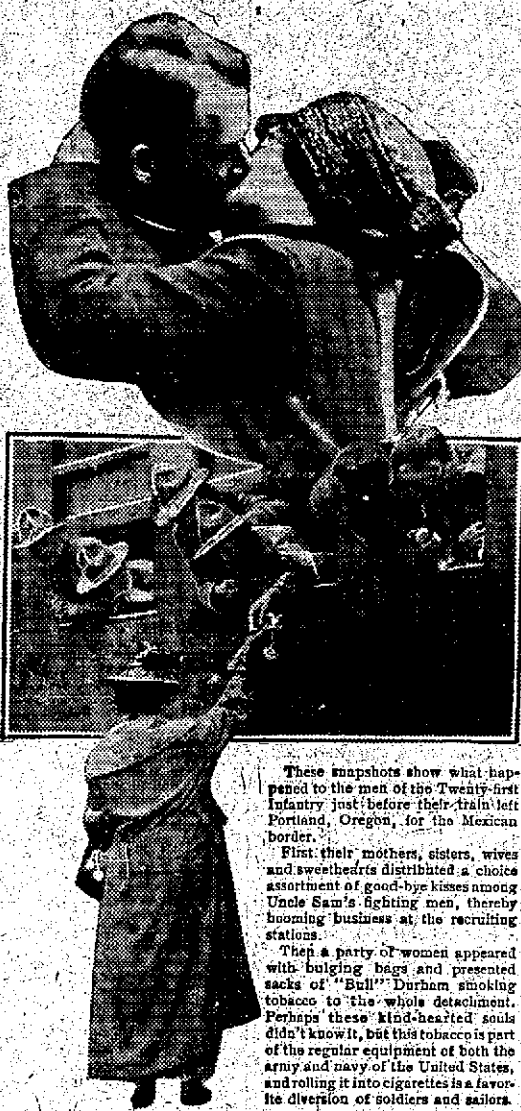

Shortly after the magistrate had taken his seat, Casement and his fellow prisoner were shown into the dock. Casement's appearance was vastly different from that of the man who gained fame in 1912 by his exposure of the cruelties practiced on natives in Putumayo by a British Rubber company. He sat in the dock resting his chin on his hand and occasionally looking toward the magistrate. When the attorney general, in opening the case for the prosecution, mentioned the conferring of the order of Knighthood on Casement, the prisoner dropped his head. The attorney general then outlined the prisoner's career.

Casement is reported to have made a long statement to the authorities, and it is believed that this statement will considerably shorten the hearing before the magistrate. The police court hearing is merely a preliminary to the real trial which will take place later before a panel of the judges.

In opening the case for the crown the attorney general charged that Casement had conducted a systematic campaign among the Irish prisoners in Germany, with the purpose of seducing them from their allegiance.

According to the attorney general, Bailey was born in Dublin and joined the Irish Rifles in 1904. He served with his regiment in India and was honorably discharged. On the outbreak of the European war Bailey was called out as a recruit and sailed with the original expeditionary force to France. He was taken prisoner in September, 1914. The attorney general said Bailey had related how a number of Irish dock resting his chin on his hand and occasionally looking toward the magistrate. When the attorney general, in opening the case for the prosecution, mentioned the conferring of the order of Knighthood on Casement, the prisoner dropped his head. The attorney general then outlined the prisoner's career.

Kisses and Smokes for American Soldiers on the Way to Mexico

First their mothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts distributed a choice assortment of good-bye kisses among Uncle Sam's fighting men, thereby booming business at the recruiting stations.

Then a party of women appeared with bulging bags and presented sacks of "Bull" Durham smoking tobacco to the whole detachment. Perhaps these kind-hearted souls didn't know it, but this tobacco is part of the regular equipment of both the army and navy of the United States, and rolling it into cigarettes is a favorite diversion of soldiers and sailors.

SCOTT IS TO CONFER WITH THE PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., May 15.—On his return from El Paso, Major General Scott, chief of staff, had a detailed report of his projected conferences with General Obregon, General Carranza's war minister, to present to President Wilson Secretary Baker and Secretary Lansing. Officials were anxious to learn precisely why the Mexican general declined to sign an agreement covering operation of American troops in Mexico particularly in view of official notification that General Carranza had approved the original draft of the protocol.

The new concentration of troops ordered by General Huerta after the El Paso conference was being conducted satisfactorily. This was interpreted as meaning the supply lines were being shortened. There were no indications today that national guards of any other states would be called to strengthen the border.

Paris, May 15.—The dirigible balloon which is reported from Toulon to have fallen into the sea off the Sardinian coast belonged to the French navy. An official statement issued today says that the balloon caught fire from an unknown cause. The remains of the envelope have been towed ashore at Toulon. Four of the six persons aboard are known to have perished and their bodies have been recovered. The fate of the remaining two is unknown, but it was feared that they have been lost.

Paris, May 15.—The bombardment in the region of the Avocourt wood and Hill 304 in the Verdun section, still continues, according to an official statement issued today by the French war office. ### NOTED AUTO RACER KILLED IN METROPOLITAN TROPHY RACE; RICKENBACHER WINS

New York, May 15.—Carl Limberg, an automobile racer, and R. Pallotti, his mechanic, leading the field in the fifteenth lap of the 150 mile race for the Metropolitan trophy, were killed when the machine crashed into a guard rail on the Sheepshead Bay track Saturday afternoon. Limberg, who had been taking the turns near the very top of the high saucer track, apparently lost control of his car, while rounding the bend at a speed of more than 100 miles an hour. Both men were catapulted 100 feet over the rail and crashed to the ground about 30 feet below. The driver was impaled on an upright piece of timber and was killed instantly. Pallotti died on the way to the Conely Island hospital.

The machine, one of three French cars imported for the race by Harry S. Harkness, crumpled under the impact and burst into flames.

Limberg's wife was in the grand stand. As the car dashed by she missed her husband's machine and realized that he was the victim of the accident. An attendant escorted her from the stand and an automobile carried her to the hospital as she was told Limberg had been taken there. Not until she reached there did she learn that he was dead.

Eddie Rickenbacher was an easy winner of the trophy in one hour, 33 minutes and 31 seconds, an average of 96.23 miles an hour for the 150 miles. Jules Devigne finished second in one hour, 35 minutes and 11 seconds and Ira Vail in one hour, 38 minutes and 44.68 seconds.

After the accident, Dario Resta forged ahead and led until the 144th mile when engine trouble forced him to quit. Ralph Mulford led in some of the early laps but was forced to quit by trouble with his engine before Limberg's accident.

A new world's record was established in the 20 mile race by Johnny Alken, who won this event in 11 minutes and 16 seconds. The previous record was established on the same track by Dario Resta in 11:24:50.

THE NEW STATION

Had some friend of ours, in no way connected with the corporation, have suggested the Norfolk and Western would locate its new station on north Chillicothe street, we would have tossed it away as one of the air castles he was ever building, but now that it is the officially announced site to be and though its selection is greatly surprising, we must confess that it rather appeals to us.

Of course, it is not the site the railway itself prefers, or would have chosen, but all things considered, it is the most desirable obtainable at cost anywhere within reason. Railroads are strictly business institutions and none are better conducted as such than the Norfolk and Western. Their investment in stations must be limited by the patronage of the given part. The building must be commensurate in appearance and accommodations with the point served and this implied that not too great a proportion of a proper investment shall go into the site, for that, necessarily, would mean skimping in the building. So with all these requirements held in view Chillicothe street has been determined upon. There the station will work the most marked improvement that will be of the greatest benefit to the city, because the land it will occupy is vacant and owing to its peculiar situation it would otherwise be an indifferent section, at best. Then this feature should be borne in mind, Chillicothe street must ever be the main artery of entrance into the city and future residential expansion will be largely along it. True enough the new site seems just now a trifle remote and out of the way, but we must consider Portsmouth has not only grown big, but she is more than steadily growing bigger and it is no longer possible to have places right under your nose. So taking all these things into consideration and that a second station is going to be erected in the upper East End to meet the requirements of that expanded section, the problem of a new station has been solved in a highly satisfactory way.

Anyway, in the near gratification of its desire for a depot that will reflect in appearance and appointment the consequence of the city, for this they know it will, the public is in no disposition to find fault with a location that fairly meets all conditions.

AS TO STREET FAIRS

It seems to us that there ought to be some form of stricter regulation in Portsmouth in regard to street fairs or carnivals. They ought to be taxed, and the tax or license, put at such a figure that it will have a tendency to discourage all but the very best shows from showing here. There are several reasons for this. One is that these shows take a great deal of money out of a town and they leave practically nothing. They generally seek to give their performance under the auspices of some fraternal society, giving a percentage of the receipts. In return the society does a vast amount of boosting, a lot of hard work and invariably reaps but small reward. Then these carnivals attract an undesirable element to a city and oftentimes robberies and other forms of depredation follow in their wake. It is necessary too, to exercise special police supervision over the show grounds and vicinity. The performances are mostly of the cheapest kind and in many cases the management seems to cater mostly to the lower, rather than the higher tastes of the public. The slightest laxness on the part of the authorities is generally seized upon and taken advantage of to pull off some vulgar performances. Last year Portsmouth had seven or eight of these carnivals. This year we have started out with a two weeks' affair and we suppose that one carnival will follow fast upon the heels of another unless something is done to check the invasion. Let the matter be taken in hand early in the season and if we must have street fairs let us at least get enough money in license fees to pay for the cost of police protection.

The Bluefield Telegraph is responsible for the announcement that imported Swiss cheese, which is made in Wisconsin has doubled in price. It is silent as to what is the increase in the radii of the snell.

A good many houses are building along Chillicothe pike. And to think how short is the time since we thought that "way out in the country."

Free trade continues to work its deadly spell upon the industries of the country. The Baltimore and Ohio railway is carrying an advertisement in The Times that it wants workmen of all sorts from skilled machinist to day laborer. And the story back of that is that railroads of the west find a shortage of labor in every department.

The United States government is about to consummate its bargain to buy from Denmark the island of St. Thomas, in the Caribbean Sea. St. Thomas has an area of 33 square miles and a population of 12,000 all negroes, but it is neither for its size, nor its people it is bought, though Denmark throws in the island of St. John, three times as large, and several other isles to make the bargain good, but our government wants it because it has the finest harbor in a thousand miles, and it will make a naval base for the guarding of the Panama canal.

And we shudder to think what would have happened to that Ford had we projected our all too solid 212 pounds of flesh into it.

TROUBLED DREAMS

Henry Lane Wilson, more or less of a reputation as ex-minister to Mexico, in suing a weekly publication for $350,000 damages to his reputation. We will wait and see whether or not a jury places so modest an estimate on Henry Lane Wilson as he does himself.

There was a lot of peace talk, last week. Sure sign there is going to be some real fighting soon.

SUMMER FASHIONS

(Bluefield Telegraph)

This is a day of clearer vision. A hot sun and a dainty voile frock help things out. Men are beginning to see through things that puzzled them. They get a new outline. Matters begin to take shape for the summer months. Definite plans on vague subjects are now being made. True, there is a shadow of doubt at times, but the general situation is getting clearer. By July we should be able to look through the summer with much satisfaction. That is, provided the fair sex conducts itself according to the fashion trends.

We suppose that Colonel Roosevelt had a spasm of indignation Thursday morning when he opened the pages of his Saturday Evening Post and found out that some of his warm admirers and most confidential counsellors had expended sixteen thousand dollars in advertising in that popular family journal to explain to the citizens of America that the Colonel was the greatest man in the world and the only man fit to run our own government. Yes, it must have come as a shock to the Colonel that there lived and breathed a man who did not know that the Colonel was the greatest man in the world.

It is an observation that some men are born great, some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon them, but one T. B. insists upon talking himself out of any claim to greatness he may have ever possessed.

True to his Spanish ancestry Mr. Obregon is everlastingly putting it off until tomorrow.

Germany assures us that the commander of the submarine that inadvertently blew up the Sussex has been "appropriately" punished. Not having to explain what "appropriately" means, she discreetly refrains from offering any definition.

Premier Asquith asserts England has furnished more than five million soldiers since the war began. That being so it becomes opportune to inquire: "Where are they at?"

The Naval League has sued Henry Ford for an even hundred thousand dollars damages for alleged libel. Evidently it too is after some free publicity.

When there are two or more ladies in the family, a man has to expect, as he starts in on one of his long humorous stories or on a few clarifying remarks about the tariff or some such paramount issue, to be interrupted by two or three audibly whispered observations of the very minimum, concerning the latest crochet stitch or the amount of shortening in the baking powder biscuits.—Ohio State Journal.

While Archie Roosevelt may be all for preparedness it has been suggested that he take a moment from his regiment for spelling. On file in a headquarters in Boston is a letter of introduction from young Roosevelt given a young man who had a new campaign song. "This will introduce so and so," says the letter, "who has a new campaign song." The quotation marks are not Archie's.—Boston Advertiser.

A Methodist conference has decided that the word layman does not include lay-woman. May be so, may be so, but there wouldn't be much to the Methodist church, nor any other, for that matter, were it not for the women.

There is one more entry in The Times corn contest, which makes four altogether or just one-third the required number. Now is the time to enter.

The venerable, but still vital, veteran, Isaac R. Sherwood, says he will be pleased to run for congress again in the Toledo district. We thought he would think better of it and just as rightly as we think he will be elected. The people have formed the good habit of electing the gallant general and can't break it.

Billy Robin's Sharp Eyes

Darf! Darf! Darf! Patter! Patter! Patter! How it did rain! All the morning—all the noon—and apparently all the afternoon too! Then suddenly and most unexpectedly, just when everybody had given up ever seeing the sun again, out he popped and down on the garden he shone.

Five minutes before the sun came out the garden was deserted. Mr. Garden Toad was napping under some leaves and twigs; Billy Robin and Mrs. Hen were napping in their nest in the apple tree; Mrs. Hen and all her family and neighbors were safely in the barn, and even Chirpy Sparrow was biding in his nest under the eaves.

But five minutes after the sun shone—that is another story! "Perhaps you yourself have watched a garden after a warm spring rain. If you have, you know just how quickly the garden folk all come out to enjoy the sun and to get a bit to eat. Wouldn't you think they would be hungry on days when the rain falls all day—and all night too?"

A half a dozen little sunbeams wiggled their way through the leaves and twigs and landed squarely on Mr. Garden Toad's shut eyes. And of course that waked him up.

"Well, well, well," said he, in surprise, "look what's happened! I never even hoped for any sunshine to-day!" And he hopped right out from his shelter onto the garden walk.

"Now what's he doing already," doing already, already!" croaked Mr. Garden Toad in his most puzzled voice. "Anybody can see that the garden is soft and moist and that, after a while, there will be a lot of good worms there. But Billy's too soon, too soon, soon!"

asked Chirpy Sparrow curiously. "I don't see any worms."

"No worms there, no worms there!" cackled Mrs. Hen from the barn door. "I guess I can see!" Billy Robin made no answer. He merely forced himself for a long hard pull, and then—out from the particular spot and again he pulled out a fine worm.

"Humph!" said he, when he had eaten the worm and could talk. "You folks have no eyes! Why don't you look? Any robin could have told you just where the worms are in this good earth are, for any through the bare window and stare at all her front immediately appeared at the barn door."

And just at that minute Billy Robin darted down into the middle of the flower bed. "Guess he knows what he's talking about," said Mr. Garden Toad. "Guess he knows, know!"

"Guess he knows, know!" doing already, already!" croaked Mr. Garden Toad in his most

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY. O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, May 15—Phyllis, the little brunette—you may remember her—second from the left—is out of the Ziegfeld shows. There is no part for her in the 1916 production and a lot of people will miss her. There have been unhappy times for Phyllis lately. She is a ward of Flo Ziegfeld and more than once has proved a care for him.

Several times she has been taken to court and fined for appearing in the streets incompletely and improperly clad, because she and the police held different views as to what constituted modesty.

Recently she was sent up to Hastings to be under the care of Billie Burke who has always been interested in her wayward ways but she carried on so that she was brought back to town, and sent to Bill Snyder at the Central Park Zoo.

Phyllis is a one year old brown bear, whose fines for appearing in the street without a muzzle have become too great a burden. Bill Snyder put her in a cage with a sister bear and she appears as happy as a cricket.

Warslav Nijinsky, the Russian ballet idol, has moved from the Claridge to the Majestic and thereby hangs a tale. The Nijinskys have a French maid who was very much interested in the war and constantly scanned the papers for news from Verdun.

The room maid at the hotel was of German birth and she resented the constant attacks on Germany on the part of Nijinsky's maid. In fact every time they got together the fur began to fly—that is rhetorically speaking.

Nijinsky appealed to them both to desist but to no avail and so week then while the Curtis family came home late one evening and found them in another discussion. He called a taxi and with the maid, Mrs. Nijinsky and the little Nijinsky moved a little bit further uptown.

The Russian dancer is to remain in New York all summer and is scheduled to appear in a number of private performances before wealthy society people.

Paul Swan, the old handsome, who used to appear in vaudeville as the handsomest man in the world, has written a play in which Frank Daniels is to appear. Swan came from a farm in Iowa and didn't know he was such an old dear until he struck Broadway and he immediately became the pet of a crowd of Broadway beauties. He capitalized his punch blown cheeks and early looks by appearing at Hammerstein's where they would stand for anything.

He soon got tired, however, of being called a beauty and retired from the stage and took a course in dramatics. That he was successful is proved by the fact that his first effort was accepted.

This is the story of "The Affable Young Man" or "The Mystery of the Dismantled House" and it comes sizzling with pathos and morals from Jersey City. Charles M. Curtis and his wife conduct a boarding house there. They had—past tense is used advisedly—five roomers.

About a week ago a sprightly young man appeared and rented the only vacant room. He said he had very good prospects in Jersey City and the Curtis contingent have since learned he told the truth. They gave him a latekey.

Things went smoothly for a week then while the Curtis family was away the affable young man called on a second hand dealer and offered him the entire contents of the Curtis household for $400. He compromised finally on $17 and the moving van came and left the house as bare as a cupboard.

When the family and the other boarders returned that night there wasn't a single thing left in the house but the family cat, and the affable young man is still missing.

The Two Watchers

"Most every day when I got up, The sun looks in at me, And sends a shining ray to say, 'I'm rising, too, you see.'"

And then he warms all out of doors, So I may go and play, While from the sky his yellow eye

Watches me every way.

And when at last I go to bed, He goes behind the hill, But pretty soon there is the moon To watch o'er me still.

Sometimes with his whole beaming face, The moon laughs jolly, And then again that's gone, but he Keeps an eye on me.

So I'm not frightened when it's dark, I know clouds are to blame, And just behind them sun and moon

Are watching just the same.

Refused To Eat The Kennel "See here, waiter," exclaimed the indignant customer, "here's a piece of wood in my sausage!"

"Yes, sir," replied the waiter, "but I'm sure—er—' 'Sure nothing! I don't mind eating the dog, but I'll be hanged if I'm going to eat the kennel too!"

Had His Number "The boys in this town must have heard all about me before we moved here," boasted Tommy, on the day after the family's arrival.

"But there's no one here that knew us," objected his mother. "That's all right," persisted Tommy. "Just as soon as I came in the school yard this morning they all yelled, 'Hello, Brick-top,' just the way they used to do at home."

A Bright Teacher

A school inspector, noted for his idiosyncrasies, happened to notice that a terrestrial globe in one of the classrooms was very dusty. This annoyed him, and putting his finger on the globe he cried out:

"There's dust here an' inch thick." "It's thicker than that, sir," calmly replied the new teacher. "What do you mean?" asked the inspector, sharply. "Why," came the answer, "you've got your finger on the desert of Sahara."

PORTSMOUTH BOY IN HOUSE FIRED BY MEXICANS

Private Vernie Johnson In Real Border Skirmish; Several Americans Killed

Graphic details of a border skirmish between a detachment of United States troops and a band of Mexican bandits is given in a letter received by The Times from Private Vernie Johnson, a Portsmouth boy.

A squad of eight Americans were surprised in a small camp, Glenn Springs, Texas May 5, and several were killed and wounded before the fight ended. The party of American troops took refuge in a small house while the Mexicans were attacking and a fight ensued which lasted for an hour or more. Then the bandits set fire to the building and drove out the soldiers. In writing of the exciting skirmish, Private Johnson says:

The Mexicans crossed the border to raid Glenn Springs, Troop A, of the Fourteenth United States Cavalry, having a detachment of nine men in Glenn Springs.

When the bandits arrived, the guard gave the alarm. Some of the men were in a tent and as soon as they heard the report of the guns they went into the house, where they would have protection.

The bandits surrounded the little camp and continued to fire for more than an hour. Then the Mexicans set fire to the house to burn the soldiers out. But after the fire started, one of the bandits showed a shot gun through one of the windows and shot Joseph Birk in the leg. He then turned to Sergeant Charles E. Smith, who was in command of the detachment and said: "I am shot."

Said He Would Fight Until He Died
Joseph Birk, being a man with good nerve, said that it did not hurt much. "I will fight until I die."

By this time the fire was getting so fierce that they could not stay in the house any longer and the Mexicans had quit firing and were waiting for the soldiers to come out. The bandits knew the soldiers could not stay in much longer, so Sergeant Smith gave the command to fire a volley to draw the fire of the Mexicans so they would not have any aim at the doors as they came out of them.

Sergeant Birk said: "Let's go," and led the way out as he jumped out the door. He was shot twice in the same leg. Private Cohen started to jump out the window and was about half way out when a bandit shot off his head.

Sergeant Smith was the next to make for the door. There were about twenty-five Mexicans around and they opened fire as he ran through the line, but he had his automatic pistol in his hand, which was working like a machine gun. He mowed the bandits down as fast as they stepped into his path.

At a distance of about one hundred yards, he began using his rifle. He would fire about ten rounds then retreat, crawling across the broken ground until he reached the cactus and rock, where he secretly hid himself.

Killed Three Mexicans With His Pistol
Private Frank Duffree then followed Sergeant Smith and ran in the same direction as Birk, killing three Mexicans with his pistol on his way out. Privates Tyres and Hudson Rogers were the next to come and were running side by side a short distance from the camp when they were fired upon and a bullet struck Rogers in the forehead, which we suppose caused instant death.

Private Cales was the next to leave the burning shack. As he was running from the camp, a bullet struck him in the left side, passing through his lungs.

Privates Charles Dempsey and Frank Craskey did not have time to get into the house, when the fight started, so they went to the forage tent, but there was not anything there to hide behind but a tripod.

Soldier Boys Hide Behind Tripod
While they were in the tent, the leader of the bandits came in and lighted a match, but he failed to see the boys behind the little tripod.

After the fire had died down and the camp was shadowed, Privates Dempsey and Craskey left the place without a wound except their feet and legs were filled with cactus needles from running across the desert.

The little detachment was surprised by the sudden attack and were all asleep at the time, except Private Duffree, who was on guard duty.

The poor wounded soldiers lay out in the mountains from one o'clock until nine the next morning. Then as the sun came up the boys went to the top of the hills to see if the bandits had gone but when they reached the top, they found that the bandits had not left.

Capt. Hullett left Alpine May 5, with a detachment of eight men, Vernie Johnson, of Portsmouth, being in the detachment.

Capt. Hullett and his men camped at Marathon on the night of the fifth, not knowing about the attack that took place at 11:45 p. m. Capt. Hullett and his detachment arrived in Glenn Springs at 4:30 in the morning of the sixth, expecting to relieve the other detachment for target practice, but was surprised when they found the detachment had been attacked.

Capt. Hullett and his men went to the Mexicans had taken the troop's horses and were soon in pursuit of the bandits.

Captain Hullett returned to Glenn Springs on the ninth. Will close, thanking you very much for the above favor.

Does Anger Correct?
Not so long ago we passed a small garden in which stood a sunny haired baby plucking from rose the bright red petals and watching them float like fairy boats in the green grass at her feet. Then came a storm and a tragedy. A dark being sprang from nowhere with a terrible shadow upon his face and harsh words upon his lips. The being shook the baby roughly by the arm. The baby was sniffling like an angel. There was anger in that clutch at the rose child's arm, and there was a blow in the world that accompanied the grasp. Then the creature went away, and we rubbed our eyes in wonder because it was dressed like a woman. —Los Angeles Times.

FIVE HORSES ROASTED ALIVE IN BLAZE AT MANCHESTER

Fire of unknown origin, which was discovered at 10 o'clock Saturday night, completely destroyed the fine big barn of E. H. Ellison, a resident of Manchester, Adams county, Ohio. Five horses, which included a match team valued at $5,000, fifty tons of hay, two new buggies, several engines and much modern farm machinery were destroyed by the fire. When the fire was discovered the heat was so intense that no attempt could be made to rescue the five horses, which were roasted alive. Mr. Ellison, who is well known in this city, places his loss at $5000 with only $1,000 insurance. No other property was endangered as the barn is 500 yards from the Ellison home. For some time grain had been stolen from the second floor of the Ellison barn and it is presumed that thieves visited it again Saturday night and dropped a lighted match.

Enveloped In Shower Of Steam; Engineer Willis Badly Scalded

Jacob Willis, aged 25 years, stationary engineer, was badly scalded when a blow-pipe burst in the boiler room of the Harbison-Walker Refractories Company's plant at Star Yards, Sunday night, at 10:30 o'clock.

Before Willis could get out of the way he was caught in a shower of steam and hot water and was scalded from the wrist up to his neck; also received a couple of burns on the knee and was slightly scalded about the hands and arms. Fellow workmen came to his rescue, but he was unable to walk to his home in Star Yards unassisted, and there Dr. S. J. Haldeman, of this city, and Dr. J. W. Hyatt, of this city, attended him.

Lyons' ambulance later removed the scalded man to Hempstead hospital. He was reported resting easily Monday morning.

Alfred and his older brother broke open a tool chest at Dan Egbert's farm and took several dynamite caps. They then went down to the creek, which flows through the small valley, and were playing with the caps, when one of them was exploded between two rocks.

The screams of the boy attracted the attention of Dan Egbert, who went to the scene at once. The boys claimed that some man had come past with a shot-gun and had emptied the contents at them.

Mr. Egbert summoned the Lucasville physician and called Sheriff E. W. Smith. When the sheriff arrived, it was found that the boys had taken the dynamite caps, and the story of "a man with a shot-gun" was an invention.

It is supposed by the authorities that the boy was pounding the dynamite cap with a rock when it exploded, for all but one of his fingers on the left hand were blown off and his face and body were covered with small wounds, bruises and cuts caused by flying gravel and sand.

Hiram Blanton moved to Miller's Run several weeks ago from Rowan county, Kentucky. The little boy was somewhat letter Monday morning, although it is believed that the lone finger on his left hand will have to be amputated.

It is supposed by the authorities that the boy was pounding the dynamite cap with a rock when it exploded, for all but one of his fingers on the left hand were blown off and his face and body were covered with small wounds, bruises and cuts caused by flying gravel and sand.

Hiram Blanton moved to Miller's Run several weeks ago from Rowan county, Kentucky. The little boy was somewhat letter Monday morning, although it is believed that the lone finger on his left hand will have to be amputated.

Alfred and his older brother broke open a tool chest at Dan Egbert's farm and took several dynamite caps. They then went down to the creek, which flows through the small valley, and were playing with the caps, when one of them was exploded between two rocks.

The screams of the boy attracted the attention of Dan Egbert, who went to the scene at once. The boys claimed that some man had come past with a shot-gun and had emptied the contents at them.

Mr. Egbert summoned the Lucasville physician and called Sheriff E. W. Smith. When the sheriff arrived, it was found that the boys had taken the dynamite caps, and the story of "a man with a shot-gun" was an invention.
